Comment : I want to speak on the outright bullying of the inmates. Some would call it retaliation but let's call a spade a spade! It's bullying! We have a new warden who seems to want to change the culture within the prison and the COs should be thankful for that. To the ones who aren't, GET A NEW JOB! If you can't show these sons, brothers, mothers, daughters etc the respect you would like them MOVE AROUND! People are down here advocating for their loved ones, JUST TO GET BULLIED by those that feel they're in charge. The COs with this concept and that have been practicing this way for so long need to be replaced, not retrained or put on leave...TERMINATED!
