CALL TO ORDER AND ATTENDANCE

JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.

This meeting is called to order, and let's take attendance starting from Ankur.

MR. SAKARIA: Ankur Sakaria, Senior Counsel at the Controller's Office and a designee of Controller O'Connor.

MS. INNAMORATO: County Executive Sara Innamorato.

JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Judge Evashavik. Judge Evashavik.

MR. PERKINS: Rob Perkins.

MS. HALLAM: Councilmember Bethany Hallam.

MAN-E: Man-E.

MS. HALLAM: And also, point of order, Judge. I just want to officially, for the record, object to the illegal designee. It is against state law that Controller O'Connor sends a designee.

JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay. Thank you.

MS. HALLAM: Ankur can't vote.

1 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Can the 2 people on Teams identify themselves? And then 3 after you identify yourselves, can you mute
4 yourselves because we're having a lot of feedback 5 in here.

6 Okay. We have Judge Bigley on 7 Teams. Barbara Griffin is on Teams, and I don't 8 know, who are the two other people, please?
9 Identify yourselves.

10 AUDIENCE MEMBER: I thought
11 somebody from IT is on here.

12 MS. HALLAM: Oh, that's you?

13 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Oh,
14 Tom. Is the feedback because --

15 Okay. Judge Bigley --

16 JUDGE BIGLEY: Somebody in the 17 other room has their audio on.

18 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
19 Can you guys mute yourselves, please.

20 Okay. Tom is unmuted.

21 MS. HALLAM: Okay. Does this work
22 now?

23 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
24 It's fixed. Wow. Okay. Public comment on Board 25 Action and Motions. Tanisha Long.

PUBLIC COMMENT ON BOARD ACTION AND MOTIONS

JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Oh, I forgot my timers.

MS. LONG: All right. So I hope that every Board Member has received a copy of their attendance for the year. I would like to note that Sheriff Kraus has attended less than -- has attended 50 percent of meetings, and Judge Bigley has only been here 62.5 percent of meetings. I would like to remind you that this job is -- you know, most of you are elected officials. You chose to take on this responsibility, and you chose to take on the responsibility of representing incarcerated people and the employees of the Allegheny County Jail. So maybe we would take it a little bit more seriously and actually show up. Last week, five of you chose not to attend. Four of you did attend. Man-E and Bethany hopped on a flight right after, so if it's important enough that they're able to delay their trip to New Orleans to be here, you would think that it would be important enough for you to be here.

JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: This is for comment on Action Items, not on people's 1 attendance.

2 MS. LONG: Reclaiming my time, one.
3 Two, I will be talking about Action Items, so as 4 long as I touch on that and none of this time I'm 5 talking right now to correct this is going to 6 count against my three minutes. As long as I'm 7 talking on that, I can say whatever I want in the 8 course of my comment. So please don't interrupt 9 me.

10 Anyway, the reason I say that is 11 because the people who chose not to show up to 12 this meeting also are the people who denied us a 13 quorum to vote on this issue, and that's 14 important. Your behavior signals what you care
15 about and what you hold as important. The same 16 people who make it their job and their career to 17 judge the intentions, intent, and meaning of the 18 actions of others chose not to attend the meeting 19 and deny them quorum. They're also the same two 20 people who voted no for the 125 last time.

21 Of the five people who did not 22 attend, four elected officials, zero are directly 23 impacted and five are white. The people in the 24 jail are 65 percent black. The decisions you 25 make affect a majority black population and you

1 cannot be bothered to attend. These are 2 important issues. There are people who are more 3 qualified to sit on this board who are not here, 4 who would love that opportunity, but you cannot 5 be bothered to show up. These are people -- the 6 people in the jail are relying on this money.
7 They're relying on this money so that they can 8 talk to their families, that they can have video 9 visits, so that they can supplement the poor
10 quality of food that's in the Allegheny County
11 Jail, and you can't be bothered to show up 12 because you wanted to deny a quorum.

13 So me, as a public citizen who came 14 here at 12:00 o'clock on a Wednesday, which is 15 crazy because this meeting is also in violation 16 of the Sunshine Act because it's not written and 17 posted anywhere, me, who can show up mid-work 18 cares more about the people in the jail than you 19 do.

20 And it is absolutely an attempt to 21 subvert the public and deny public participation 22 by hosting at a 12:00 o'clock on a Wednesday.
23 You work in the courthouse. You could have been 24 there at 4:00 and you chose not to.

25 Thank you.

1 (Applause.)

2 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Maria
3 Guido.

4 MS. GUIDO: Maria Guido, Licensed
5 Clinical Social Worker, Transformative Bonds.

6 So I'm just going to piggyback on 7 Tanisha's last comment. This meeting, I do feel, 8 was scheduled at a time to discourage public
9 participation. I definitely feel that way.

10 And I am actually -- was actually 11 supposed to be part of a meeting to talk about 12 some -- doing more things at the jail that would 13 be better for the people at the jail, and that 14 would decrease a lot of the issues at the jail, 15 but instead I am here at 12:00 p.m. on a 16 Wednesday because you guys decided to schedule 17 this. Here's the thing, I don't care if this 18 meeting happens on Friday at 9:00 p.m. I don't 19 care if this meeting happens on a Sunday morning 20 at 5:00 a.m. I will be here. I will be here.

21 These funds, we're okay with these 22 for two more years. From what I understand, two 23 more years, and if I'm wrong, you can tell me I 24 am. They're generated from the profits this 25 County receives from phone calls, video visits,

1 and commissary. If we didn't charge people that 2 much, we wouldn't have an issue with this. We 3 wouldn't even need this fund, okay? Giving the 4 money back to the people is the moral and right 5 thing to do, especially with the history of this 6 facility, okay? This fund, again, it creates 7 fairness that no one has to be without just 8 because they don't have the resources to do it.
9 Removing this money places the undue burden on 10 families of incarcerated people. It takes away 11 their ability to receive calls and video visits.
12 This disproportionately affects those in RHU, the 13 medical pod, and those from out of state.

14 I come here every single month and 15 talk about how we can change this jail if we 16 change the culture of it. If you have people 17 that are calm and are being taken care of, the 18 COs are calm and being taken care of and 19 vice versa. So if we take this money away, this 20 is going to increase the issues.

21 Again, I don't care if it's at 22 9:00 p.m. on a Friday. I don't care if it's at 23 5:00 a.m. on a Sunday. I will be here.

24 Thank you.

25 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Moira

1 Kaleida.

2 MS. KALEIDA: Good afternoon.

3 Moira K-A-L-E-I-D-A from Brookline, longtime 4 listener, first time speaker. But I've been 5 noticing a pattern across Pittsburgh, and it's a 6 lot of folks in power not showing up and doing 7 the job they're supposed to do. And so I just do 8 want to call attention to -- and shame to the 9 orchestrated undemocratic act of not showing up 10 to the meeting two weeks ago. I don't know if 11 it's to avoid votes, avoid a debate, definitely 12 to avoid a quorum, but it's a waste of our time, 13 it's a waste of the public's time, and we depend 14 on you to do that job. It creates distrust, and 15 it's happening. Like I said, not just with this 16 Board but also with our School Board, with our 17 City Council.

18 So, you know, we've seen this 19 before when this legislation has come up. No 20 prior Board has taken issue with this except when 21 the controller snuck out before the vote. You 22 know, removing the money from -- that -- from 23 this fund from the folks in the jail puts an 24 undue burden on families, takes away their 25 rights, their ability to receive calls, the video

1 visits, and it disproportionately affects those 2 in RHU, the medical pod, and those from out of 3 state.

4 You know, I just want to say that 5 this would reset the jail's economy, which is 6 going to create a safety risk, and that giving 7 the money back to the people is just the moral 8 and right thing to do. It creates fairness so 9 that nobody has to be without, and so that they 10 don't have to have outside funds to support 11 themselves.

12 So I'd just like to ask that you 13 show up first, and then you vote to continue to 14 provide these funds.

15 Thank you.

16 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Josh
17 Theiler.

18 Sharon Bonovoglia. Oh.

19 MR. THEILER: Josh Theiler. I
20 didn't know that I signed up, but 12:00 o'clock 21 on a Wednesday, yeah, missing work for this. Had 22 to move work meetings. You know, we vote to put 23 you guys here to take care of stuff like this for 24 us so that we, the public, don't have to take 25 away from our jobs and the things that we're

1 doing, and whenever you're trying to take away, 2 you know, money that is, you know, the 3 incarcerated individual's money, it's their 4 money. You're taking it away from them. I mean, 5 how much do they really have? And you're taking 6 this little bit more away. It's absolutely 7 absurd and inhumane.

8 You're sitting here because we want 9 you to look out for our community members, our 10 neighbors who are in that jail, and I don't think 11 that that's too much to ask. You want to be 12 here. I would love if you showed us. I would 13 love if you showed the people in that jail that 14 you want to be here for them and do what you can 15 to make, you know, very difficult times just that 16 little bit better, you know?

17 I guess that's all I have to ramble
18 right now, but thanks.

19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Sharon
20 Bonavoglia.

21 MS. BONAVOGLIA: I'd like to start
22 by saying that I think it's important that we see 23 the people that are on the Board and that we know 24 exactly what they're doing during Public 25 Comments.

1 (Applause.)

2 MS. BONAVOGLIA: And I'm 3 disappointed that I'm seeing initials of people
4 that are Board Members.

5 PIIN is strongly encouraging the 6 JOB to keep the IIWF payments at $125 until and 7 unless the overcharging for phone calls and 8 commissary changes. It is one of the few truly 9 just actions from this JOB that is just to the 10 residents and to their families since the money
11 comes out of their pocketbooks and not ours. It 12 comes out of their pocketbooks.

13 We also will continue to use this 14 space to encourage both Judge Bigley and Judge 15 Evashavik to use the power and authority in your 16 courtrooms to hold detainer hearings and to lift 17 as many as possible because it directly relates 18 to the overpopulation in the jail. We also ask 19 that you both use your influence with peers to do 20 the same.

21 Thank you, Barbara Griffin, for 22 turning on your camera. I greatly appreciate it.
23 Shame on you Judge Bigley for not being able to 24 see you.

25 And now, if you are able, please

1 rise for the reading of the names of the dead:

2 Richard Lenhart, Robert Blake,
3 Cody Still, Daniel Pastorek, John Brady,
4 Martin Bucek, Robert Harper, Vinckley Harris, 5 Justin Brady, Paul Allen, Roger Millspaugh, 6 Paul Spisak, Gerald Thomas, Jerry Lee Ross, Jr., 7 Victor Joseph Zilinek, Ronald Andrus, 8 Anthony Talotta, William Spencer,
9 James Washington, Damon Leroy Kayes, Tim Manino, 10 Douglas Bonomo, Zachary Sahm, Nicole Baruffi, 11 Richard Sciubba, II, Terrance Clowney, 12 Tracey Hickey and Justin McCullough.

13 And I'll take the remainder of my 14 time to say that I move heaven and earth to be at 15 every one of these meetings --

16 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Sarah
17 Summer.

18 MS. BONAVOGLIA: -- and I have been 19 at every one of these meetings. And I have been 20 at every one of these meetings -- I haven't heard 21 a beep -- since --

22 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Where's
23 the Sheriff?

24 Sara Summer Oliphant.

25 MS. BONAVOGLIA: -- August of 2022.

1 Is there going to be a beep?

2 (Applause.)

3 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: For the 4 record, I haven't been in Criminal Division since 5 February, so I don't have any control over any 6 detainers.

7 Go ahead, Ms. Oliphant.

8 AUDIENCE MEMBER: You're the 9 president, Judge. You're the president, Judge.
10 Come on. Make yourself accountable. Open your 11 courtroom.

12 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Can you 13 remove her?

15 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Yeah.

16 AUDIENCE MEMBER: You didn't warn
17 her before removing her.

18 AUDIENCE MEMBER: Wait, what?

19 AUDIENCE MEMBER: You didn't warn
20 her first.

21 MS. OLIPHANT: Good afternoon. I
22 didn't plan on speaking today, but I believe this 23 topic is too important to just sit quietly while 24 it's being discussed. It is discouraging to know 25 that the individuals tasked with looking out for

1 the jail and those housed within it would even 2 consider taking this money away from those 3 incarcerated. At the end of the day, these are 4 human beings who deserve dignity. When Board
5 Members can't be bothered to show up and discuss 6 matters as important as funds allowing folks in 7 the jail to speak to family and have commissary, 8 it's very discouraging as a resident of this 9 county.

10 Thank you.

11 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Joe
12 Popovich.

13 MR. POPOVICH: Hello. My name is 14 Joe Popovich. I'm a current resident of 15 Pittsburgh, a master's student at Pitt, and I'm 16 also a formerly incarcerated individual.

17 I'm speaking today of a small
18 course correction to the one-time monthly payment 19 to keep the funds solvent. I want this to be 20 clear. I don't want this to be an open 21 invitation to repetitively reduce the fund.

22 After reading through the analysis
23 of the Welfare Fund, one big takeaway I had was 24 there was language about increasing purchasing 25 power, but only in relation to like splitting the

1 payment where some of the money goes to programs
2 like basketballs and other to smaller reduction
3 of payment. I want to take a step back and look 4 at purchasing power in general.

5 One of -- if -- sorry. One of the 6 first universal conversation one has when going 7 to prison is you won't believe the prices once 8 you get there. Ramen Noodle soups are 28 cents.
9 That was pre-COVID. What was your price in your 10 county? And everyone shares $1.25, $1.50. I 11 believe the price for Ramen is $3 or $4 in our 12 county. If a reduction of the Welfare Fund is 13 necessary, then a high priority in the future
14 should be to review some of the commissary
15 supplies and look for alternatives. A bedrock 16 staple item in prison is Ramen Noodle soup and 17 coffee. If you could just have access to just a 18 small reduction in these items, I believe you 19 could increase the amount of -- that inmates 20 would have to spend on hygiene or phone calls or 21 anything else. If a reduction is possible, I 22 think a proactive look before we do this, or at 23 any point, of the items would increase the 24 purchasing power. I kind of lost my train of 25 thought in the end, but thank you.

1 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Joe
2 Popovich.

3 MS. HALLAM: That was him.

4 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Oh,
5 sorry. Laura Perkins.

6 MS. PERKINS: Hi there. Laura
7 Perkins. I'm a resident of Pittsburgh. I want 8 to acknowledge that the word "citizen," if we say 9 we are citizens, we are excluding folks that are 10 here and should be here and we want them to be 11 here, so let's all use the word resident instead 12 of citizen.

13 Secondly, I'd like to acknowledge 14 the fact that there's an illegal member on the 15 dais -- "dais" -- how do you say that word -- up 16 there. Ankur is illegally there, and he should 17 not have a vote.

18 All right. So the Incarcerated
19 Individual Welfare Fund, we need money for this.
20 The reason for that is because these "welfare 21 services" should be available to all incarcerated 22 individuals and not be contingent on money.
23 Incarcerated individuals do not earn a living 24 wage, so when we think about how they need to 25 spend money that they are not being paid a

1 living -- or even a legal wage because we have 2 slavery in our jail -- and they have to spend 3 that money on basic items, that is the basis of 4 this conversation, that we're expecting people
5 that do not have money to pay for basic goods -- 6 to pay for those basic goods, and basic goods 7 meaning spending money to meet their caloric 8 need, their physical caloric needs.

9 So folks that are voting against 10 any raise are saying that we don't believe that 11 people in the jail should have access to food, 12 the calories that they need to live.

13 Some of these welfare services -- 14 previously the Discharge and Release Center was 15 funded by the Incarcerated Individual Welfare
16 Fund. How is that just an option, like something 17 that, oh, maybe they need this service, and we're 18 going to let them pay for this service. The 19 Discharge and Release Center, isn't that the 20 most -- one of the most important aspects of the 21 jail? Don't we want the folks in the jail to go 22 out into society and not come back? Because that 23 is mostly on the Discharge and Release Center.
24 And before that was funded by the Incarcerated 25 Individual Welfare Fund. If we are able to find

1 funds for the Discharge and Release Center, we 2 should be able to find funds for other basic 3 services and not charge incarcerated individuals 4 for access to calls and video calls. We should 5 not have to charge them for those things.

6 So I am here to comment as a
7 resident of Allegheny County to say, one, shame 8 on you for not voting to put money in this. We 9 should all be fighting to figure out other ways 10 so that those services apply to everyone in the 11 jail. Everyone should have access to those, and 12 we shouldn't make it contingent on them having 13 enough money to sustain themselves.

14 Thank you.

15 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Dean
16 Stanley.

17 AUDIENCE MEMBER: He's not here.

18 REVIEW OF MEETING MINUTES

19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
20 Review of the meeting minutes.

21 Do I have a Motion?

22 MS. HALLAM: So moved. For both,
23 or are you doing one at a time?

24 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Well,
25 let's do one at a time. July 3 of 2025.

1 MS. HALLAM: Motion to approve.
2 MS. INNAMORATO: I will second.
3 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: All in
4 favor?
5 (Chorus of ayes.)
6 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Any
7 opposed?
8 (No response.)
9 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
10 Motion regarding -- first, I would note that the 11 date is wrong on August 7. It says '24 instead 12 of '25. Can we get that corrected?
13 MR. SAKARIA: Yes.
14 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
15 So with the correction of the year, do I have a 16 Motion to approve the August 7, '25?
17 MS. HALLAM: So moved.
18 MS. INNAMORATO: Second.
19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: All in 20 favor?
21 (Chorus of ayes.)
22 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Any
23 opposed?
24 (No response.)
25 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Motion

1 carries.

2 No Old Business.

3 NEW BUSINESS

4 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: New
5 Business, we have a Motion to approve IIWF
6 monthly disbursements of $100 for September
7 through December of 2025, presented by Member
8 Perkins.

9 MR. PERKINS: Yes. Judge, are we 10 going to be able to -- there's been a lot of 11 discussion today about, you know, the finances of 12 the plan. Is there a -- can we talk to DHS?

13 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Oh,
14 yes. Yes.

15 MR. PERKINS: Should we have that 16 before we discuss the Motion, just to have some 17 basic questions about solvency and things of that 18 nature?

19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Well, I
20 think the Motion should be on the floor.

21 MR. PERKINS: Okay. All right.
22 Can I -- I'll put the Motion on the floor to 23 approve II -- monthly disbursements of $100 for 24 September to December 2025. I am going to amend 25 that, but Councilmember Hallam might have -- I'm

1 not sure of the logistical process.

2 MS. HALLAM: Yeah. I think we need
3 a Motion and a Second. Then it's on the floor, 4 and then I can propose an amendment.

5 MR. PERKINS: Okay. So --

6 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: You
7 need a second.

8 MS. INNAMORATO: I'll send it.

9 MS. HALLAM: You seconded? Okay.
10 Well.

11 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.

12 MS. HALLAM: Yeah. And then I 13 would like the Motion to amend. I'd be cool if 14 these were separated and decided on separately.

15 First of all, instead of the $100 a 16 month, which would be a $25 per month reduction 17 that is being proposed, I would like to Motion to 18 continue it for $125 per month. That would be my 19 first one.

20 Then my second one would be a 21 Motion to Mr. Perkins' Motion makes the 22 disbur- -- approves the disbursements from 23 September to December. Just historically having 24 been on this Board, the January meeting is a very 25 chaotic one. It's the first one of the year.

1 Some people are still away for the holiday. I
2 worry about a lack of a quorum and don't want, 3 you know, the incarcerated individuals to be 4 without their money, so I would propose whatever 5 dollar amount that we pass that it be approved 6 through January 2026, and then we would revisit 7 this in February's meeting.

8 And so I guess I would ask for a 9 second.

10 MAN-E: Second.

11 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
12 We'll, you've proposed two different things. So
13 Man-E, which -- what are you seconding?

14 MAN-E: I'll second it to continue
15 at $125 a month.

16 MR. PERKINS: And I'll second the 17 January to -- including January as well.

18 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
19 All right. Discussions.

20 I think DHS is just here to answer
21 questions, right?

22 (Inaudible.)

23 AUDIENCE MEMBER: Whatever you'd 24 like.

25 MS. HALLAM: Yeah. We don't need a

1 presentation.

2 MS. GRIFFIN: I think someone needs
3 to -- I can't hear. I didn't hear anything. I 4 didn't hear anything after DHS is --

5 MS. HALLAM: They're here to answer
6 any questions from us about -- as we're debating 7 these Motions.

8 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Would 9 you like DHS to make a presentation?

10 MS. INNAMORATO: Yes. Would they 11 provide a summary of the funding?

12 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
13 Could you provide a summary of your study, if you 14 don't mind, Ms. Dalton?

15 MS. INNAMORATO: Thank you,
16 Director.

17 DIRECTOR DALTON: Would you all 18 like copies as well? We can distribute some 19 copies of the report as well as some slides.

20 I'm Erin Dalton. I'm the Director
21 of Allegheny County DHS. This is Katie Collins.
22 She's our Chief Analytics Officer.

23 I'll -- if it's okay, I'll just 24 give -- I'll start with a kind of high-level 25 overview and then allow for questions. Does that

1 sound right?

2 All right. So I appreciate the 3 opportunity to inform -- I think it was 4 interesting to take a look at what the -- how the 5 Inmate Welfare Fund has been used and some things 6 that I didn't expect to find.

7 So let's see. So starting at the 8 top, 63 percent of folks who are in the jail in 9 2024 received at least one payment. As folks 10 have maybe already kind of started to discuss, 11 the most frequent time that people didn't receive 12 a payment is if they were there for two weeks or 13 less. And so considering disbursing more
14 frequently would mean that more folks, of course, 15 would receive that payment.

16 There is an issue. While a lot of 17 folks receive money from other sources,
18 20 percent of people who receive the Inmate
19 Welfare Funds -- or Incarcerated Person's Funds, 20 did not receive any other deposits in their 21 account. Most of those folks stayed there for 22 less than a month, but there is a population that 23 without these funds would not have any other 24 funding in this account.

25 Sort of interestingly, I guess I

1 would have expected to find that external 2 deposits would have reduced with the increase in 3 money going directly into people's accounts. We 4 did not find that. Family and friends continued
5 to deposit in people's accounts and increase 6 those deposits a little bit.

7 People who are in the jail who 8 receive funds during their first month spend more 9 on every category of purchase, and the greatest 10 difference was in the commissary items, but they 11 did spend money on communications and other -- 12 other ways of spending money in the jail.

13 Folks asked us to look at how money 14 was being spent in the commissary, and while 15 certainly there was money spent in all areas, 16 including basic hygiene, about 90 percent of the 17 commissary funding was spent on foot-related 18 items.

19 A piece that I think was important
20 to look at and interesting is that people leaving 21 the jail who did receive funding from this 22 received -- left with more money than those who 23 didn't, and I think that's an important piece for 24 consideration.

25 For people who are in the jail for

1 a short period, so one month or less, if you 2 received a payment, you left with a median of 3 $125, which is $105 more than others, but even -- 4 even without that, folks who received money in 5 their account were five times more likely to 6 leave with balances of $50 or more.

7 So leaving with money is a thing
8 that the Inmate Welfare Fund is providing to 9 people.

10 That said, longer stayers were more 11 likely to spend that money during that time but 12 still left with more money than if they had not 13 received those dollars.

14 We looked a little bit at 15 literature and cash payments across the country.
16 At release we find relatively mixed results. We 17 looked at outcomes for population and didn't find 18 statistically significantly different outcomes in 19 reincarceration and emergency room stays and 20 emergency shelter where you might have expected 21 that -- those dollars to have had outcomes there, 22 we didn't find them. But we did take a look.
23 And people are leaving with more dollars.

24 So I think that's the high-level
25 findings. Katie, did I miss anything good?

1 (No response.)

2 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Ankur.

3 MR. SAKARIA: Thanks for coming,
4 Director. Could you speak a little bit more to 5 finding Number 1 regarding the finding that 6 63 percent of the individual booked at the jail
7 in 2024 received at least one. Can you talk a 8 little bit more about that?

9 DIRECTOR DALTON: Yeah. I think 10 it's really just a matter of how long people are 11 there, and when the money is approved to be 12 disbursed and when it gets disbursed. And so 13 we've talked a little bit with the jail about 14 whether more frequent disbursements would be 15 practical and possible. And I think while there 16 are some administrative costs, it's possible to 17 disburse more frequently.

18 MR. SAKARIA: If I could just 19 follow up. My next question is about any 20 findings regarding recidivism. Could you talk a 21 little bit about that?

22 DIRECTOR DALTON: Sure. Let me
23 just turn to that piece because -- yeah. So and 24 look, there's probably other ways to run this.
25 We looked at people released with no money

1 compared to people who were released with $75 or 2 more. We looked at the folks leaving the jail in 3 2024, and while there are some small difference 4 in rebooking, so about 9 percent of folks we 5 released who were released with no money were 6 rebooked within one month. Slightly less, or 7 7 percent, that's not statistically different, 8 right? So small difference there, but they 9 aren't statistically different.

10 We looked at emergency shelter with 11 the expectation that people might not be able to 12 find housing if they didn't have some money in 13 their pocket. Again, no statistical differences 14 there, about 5 to 6 percent for each group. And 15 again, a slightly higher rate of emergency room 16 department visits, but not statistically 17 different.

18 So while we might hypothesize that 19 those -- we would have seen outcomes there, we 20 didn't find statistically different outcomes and 21 that's relatively in line with the literature
22 that's somewhat mixed. I think the -- there's a 23 lot of work left to be done in this work to know 24 how much money is meaningful, how it's provided, 25 whether it comes with other counseling and other

1 supports, but this is just like, you know, a look 2 at the data and outcomes for those folks.

3 MR. SAKARIA: Thank you.

4 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Mr.
5 Perkins.

6 MR. PERKINS: Thank you. Director,
7 I have a couple follow-up questions. So with 8 respect to that issue of 63 percent of the people 9 received the funds, that means that 40 percent 10 did not receive the funds, right? If we 11 disbursed twice a month, how many more people 12 would get the money?

13 DIRECTOR DALTON: Yeah. We've got 14 that. Yeah. We'll check it. We think it's 15 about 72 percent, and weekly is 85. So that's -- 16 you can find that on Page 6 of the report, right?
17 Yep.

18 And so twice a month -- so
19 currently monthly it's about 63 percent. Twice a 20 month would be 74 percent. Once a week, 85 21 percent. Every three days 97 percent. Every 22 day, 100 percent.

23 MR. SAKARIA: Not to jump in, but 24 can the jail -- not to put the jail on the spot, 25 but can the jail speak a little bit to the

1 logistics that would be involved in increasing 2 the number of disbursements?

3 AUDIENCE MEMBER: It would take a
4 processing, a second processing. If you don't 5 take the initial effort that it takes and you 6 only take the additional effort at second 7 processing, it would take three different
8 positions, which would be about five people, a 9 total of 12 hours to reprocess.

10 The other thing is to make the 11 second process as efficient as possible, the 12 second has to be with over a week between, and it 13 has to be on the same day of the month. If it's 14 not on the same -- yeah, if it's not on the same 15 day of the month, then it's not an automated 16 system. It's a manual system, and I didn't 17 calculate that because that's actually adding 18 staff to the situation.

19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: So that 20 the public understands, you can be incarcerated 21 for 30 days and receive nothing because you 22 weren't there on the 1st of the month, and you 23 can be incarcerated one day and receive the whole 24 amount because you happened to be there on the 25 1st of the month.

1 AUDIENCE MEMBER: If it's proc-
2 -- if -- yes. If it's processed that day after 3 you've been there, uh-huh.

4 MS. HALLAM: I don't think it's 5 after one day because I thought you run on the 6 1st and then they get it on like the 3rd, 4th, 7 5th, 6th.

8 AUDIENCE MEMBER: Yeah, it's the 9 day it's run is when you get it.

10 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: But you
11 still get it.

12 AUDIENCE MEMBER: I mean, you
13 process it. So if you're there on the 1st --

14 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: You get 15 it.

16 AUDIENCE MEMBER: Even though you
17 would get it.

18 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: No, you 19 get it on the 3rd even though you might be 20 released.

21 MS. HALLAM: You can't get it if 22 you're only there for a day.

23 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: If you
24 were only in jail on the 1st of the month and you 25 were released on the 2nd, you'd still get the 1 money.

2 AUDIENCE MEMBER: It would still be 3 processed that you would get the money.

4 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Yes.

5 MS. HALLAM: So you're saying we're 6 giving money to people after they're released?

7 No, we're not.

8 AUDIENCE MEMBER: Yeah.

9 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Yeah,
10 we are.

11 AUDIENCE MEMBER: Yeah, it goes
12 into their account.

13 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: It goes
14 into their account.

15 AUDIENCE MEMBER: As long as their 16 account is active, it goes into their account.

17 MS. HALLAM: But they're not in 18 jail, so how does it --

19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: It
20 doesn't matter. They were there on the 1st.

21 AUDIENCE MEMBER: As long as the 22 account is active, and until the account is 23 deactivated, and if we -- if they were owed the 24 money on the 1st and we processed it on the 1st, 25 the money would be available for their account.

1 MS. HALLAM: So you're saying -- 2 sorry. My mic isn't on. So you're saying I'm in 3 jail on the 1st. Let's hope not, but I'm in jail 4 on the 1st, okay? So I leave on the 2nd. On the 5 3rd, I can come back to jail and get my money?

6 AUDIENCE MEMBER: It would be in 7 that active account, and we would process that 8 for you.

9 MS. HALLAM: Never ever heard that 10 there are thousands of people who need to know 11 this.

12 MAN-E: Yeah. I never heard that 13 either. How long do accounts stay active after 14 somebody leaves?

15 AUDIENCE MEMBER: That I couldn't 16 find out.

17 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Accounts
18 always remain active. So if you came back and 19 you had money in your account, that money would 20 still be on your account. You could come back a 21 month later, get that money. We hold it. There 22 is some State guidelines and we have to turn that 23 into the State after a certain amount of time.
24 What that is offhand, I'm not sure.

25 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Because

1 it is cheats? Is that why?

2 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Pardon me.

3 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: It is 4 cheats to the State. Is that why you have to 5 give it to the State?

6 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: We can't -- 7 yeah, we can't hold that money eternally.

8 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Right.

9 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: But we do
10 hold it. There is a legal limit on the time 11 where we have to keep it, and if people come 12 back, they -- that money is still on their 13 account, and if they want to come and get that 14 money, they can do that as well.

15 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: But if 16 they don't get the money, it doesn't go back into 17 the fund?

18 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: No.

19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: It goes
20 to the State.

21 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Correct.
22 Under their name.

23 MS. HALLAM: Yeah. You're right.
24 So we should basically then be auditing people 25 who left the jail each month from the 1st to

1 whatever date of disbursement and reaching out to 2 those people. That's something we could do? All
3 their money is sitting there? That's what I'm 4 hearing right now. That would be awesome.

5 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: If the money
6 was deposited and they didn't receive it, it's 7 going to be on their account.

8 MS. HALLAM: Wow. Fantastic news.
9 Judge, you were right. I was wrong, but that's 10 incredible, and I can't wait to talk more about 11 that. Thank you.

12 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE:
13 Mr. Perkins, do you have more questions?

14 MR. PERKINS: I do. Thank you. So
15 as far as the financial analysis that you did, 16 what was the biggest revenue generator for the 17 fund?

18 DIRECTOR DALTON: Yeah. We believe 19 that the commissary -- we're checking the 20 exact -- it's on Page 3.

21 It's on Page 3. It's not the 22 commissary. It's the telephone commissions at 23 $128,000, followed by tablet commission -- or 24 followed by the commissary at 95 and tablet at 25 25.

1 MR. PERKINS: So essentially, the 2 profits that we derive from up-charging on the 3 phone calls funds this -- is the primary funder 4 of this fund?

5 DIRECTOR DALTON: Yes. That's 6 right.

7 MR. PERKINS: So if you were 8 philosophically opposed to up-charging people for 9 phone calls to call their loved ones and you -- 10 and you hoped that we could in the future talk to 11 a provider, make free phone calls, that would 12 solve the problem that they could contact their 13 loved one but that would also mean we'd have less 14 money in this fund?

15 DIRECTOR DALTON: That's right.

16 MR. PERKINS: All right. So let's 17 say hypothetically if it were up to me there's a 18 contract in 2026 and we wanted to have free phone 19 calls and not generate any income from people who 20 are kind of prey to these contracts because they 21 don't have any other options as far as making 22 phone calls, how much a month could we afford 23 going forward with this fund without the revenue 24 from the phone commissions?

25 DIRECTOR DALTON: I mean, there's

1 probably a bunch to that including, you know, the 2 number of people in the jail and their 3 expenditure rates and whether that changes their 4 spending on other things. But Katie, that would 5 be about 125-K a month, and so I don't know what 6 the math is on that.

7 MS. COLLINS: Yeah, we modeled it
8 out, and with no commission rates on the fund, I 9 think it was $67 a month to each individual would 10 be sustainable as long as nothing else changed.
11 And there's a lot of, you know, moving parts with 12 jail population and how they're spending their 13 money, but giving kind of the current state, it 14 would be $67 to be sustainable with no phone 15 commissions.

16 MR. PERKINS: Okay.

17 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: So if 18 we continue to spend $125 per month, the fund 19 would be bankrupt.

20 DIRECTOR DALTON: If there are 21 changes.

22 MS. HALLAM: If there are changes
23 on commission. And what's the -- sorry. Are you 24 done? Can I start?

25 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: No,

1 he's not done. Sorry. I interrupted.

2 MR. PERKINS: That's okay. I think
3 that's the most important point that I was trying 4 to understand. And are you aware maybe the -- we 5 are -- at this point, I know we can't talk about 6 any details of contract negotiations, but that is 7 a contract that will be renewed in the near 8 future; is that correct?

9 DIRECTOR DALTON: (Nodding head).

10 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: At the 11 end of the year, the current contract expires, 12 correct?

13 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Our current 14 phone contract is out for proposals and those are 15 being reviewed and scored. So once a 16 determination and a provider is selected, we'll 17 move forward with contracting with them. The 18 current contract is a month-to-month contract 19 pending this decision.

20 MR. PERKINS: Because there was a 21 discussion. Someone had said it's going to be 22 two years, you know, we can't change anything, 23 but you know, we're all learning on the fly here.

24 But this could be done Jan- --
25 like, do we have a general timetable, the next

1 few months versus two years?

2 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Oh, a
3 decision will be made on this in the coming 4 months.

5 MR. PERKINS: In the coming months.

6 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Yes, sir.

7 MR. PERKINS: So if you want to -- 8 assuming we all want to help people in jail call 9 their loved ones but make this fund sustainable, 10 we can't afford $125 a month if those phone 11 commissions go away, right?

12 DIRECTOR DALTON: Yeah.

13 MR. PERKINS: I think that's all 14 the questions I have.

15 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: And I
16 would ask Ankur, because I know you did a study
17 on -- your office did a study on this, and I know 18 the law -- the implementation of the law forcing 19 the reduction of phone call commissions was 20 delayed, but can you give the -- a summary of 21 your study?

22 MR. SAKARIA: Sure. Jill can also 23 speak to this, but the ruling that was 24 promulgated was from the FCC, and they basically 25 capped the commission that governments can ask

1 for and can receive as part of these 2 telecommunications.

3 And to your point, yes, that -- 4 there was a delay in the implementation, the 5 enforcement of that rule. I believe that's 6 something that Member Barbara had mentioned as 7 well. I think that goes into effect in '27.

8 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: But 9 initially, you ran -- when was it supposed to go 10 into effect, do you remember?

11 MR. SAKARIA: It initially was for 12 '26.

13 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: For 14 '26, and so you had run numbers that if that went 15 into effect in '26 this fund would be bankrupt if 16 we continued to pay $125 a month, I believe 17 sometime during the calendar year of '26. Is 18 that right?

19 MR. SAKARIA: Yeah. And I think 20 you're referencing the budget projections between 21 the Controller's Office and the county Budget 22 Office, which put us at, depending on the 23 enforcement of that ruling, put us in a 24 three-month window sometime in '26.

25 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.

1 Thank you.

2 Ms. Innamorato, did you have a
3 question?

4 MS. INNAMORATO: More of a
5 statement to provide some context to Member 6 Perkins line of questioning, as well as kind of 7 add some color to what Director Dalton and Deputy 8 Warden Clark was touching on.

9 So, you know, in our conversations
10 with the Warden and the leadership team, this has 11 been something that has come up quite a bit, how 12 do we reduce or eliminate any revenue that we're 13 making so, you know, give free calls, look for 14 folks who are willing to provide that service, 15 you know, not take money from families
16 unnecessarily, really to, you know, provide them 17 with the actual cost of what it means to connect 18 with their loved one, with their legal team 19 outside of the building. You know, that is what 20 was asked of the people who submitted proposals.

21 So that is a conversation that is 22 happening now amongst leadership at the jail, in 23 our budget office, you know, throughout this 24 administration, because that is the ultimate 25 goal. The ultimate goal is to not make money on

1 people contacting their loved ones.

2 Obviously, the other side of that 3 coin is that we do not have revenue going into 4 this fund. So I think right now we're trying to 5 strike a balance between, you know, you getting a 6 new provider that -- not taking any commission 7 from calls starting out, right? We're going to 8 have another contract for commissary that will be 9 coming up and maybe Deputy Clark -- Deputy Warden
10 Clark you can touch on that, the commissary 11 contract, but really trying to find a balance 12 between how can we continue to support 13 incarcerated individuals so that they can access 14 telecommunications and commissary while also 15 planning for reduction of income for this fund, 16 and also giving people more access, more free 17 calls and not, you know, charging any additional 18 money for that service.

19 So that is the ultimate goal. I
20 think we're looking at a 2026 timeline, but I 21 think what we have here is kind of a step down to 22 kind of prolong that while also adding, you know, 23 things like reimbursement twice a month -- or 24 disbursement twice a month so that more people 25 can take advantage of this payment.

1 So I just wanted to provide that 2 context in the conversations that have been 3 happening within my administration and knowing 4 that that is a priority for us to achieve
5 while -- when this contract comes up and is in a 6 final proposal is accepted and implemented.

7 So with all of that, Deputy Warden
8 Clark, would you mind touching on the timeline 9 for the commissary piece, because I know we're 10 talking about the telecommunications piece --

11 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Right.

12 MS. INNAMORATO: -- specifically 13 that we're actively reviewing proposals from.

14 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: We are 15 currently extending -- we have a one-year option 16 for an extension on the contract for commissary, 17 which we're going to utilize, so that will put us 18 a year from now at looking at a rebidding process 19 for the -- RFP for commissary.

21 MS. HALLAM: Thank you, Judge.

22 Okay. So first of all, I want to 23 start off -- I want to make sure everybody 24 realizes -- it feels like a couple folks are 25 talking about two different things. Eliminating

1 commissions and free calls are very different
2 things. If you make phone calls and video calls 3 free, equity. Everybody has that. If you just 4 eliminate commissions, it only benefits people 5 who have somebody to put money on their books to 6 be able to afford those reduced prices.

7 MS. INNAMORATO: Can I provide some 8 context for that?

9 MS. HALLAM: Please. Yes.

10 MS. INNAMORATO: So the request of 11 the folks who are submitting proposals was to -- 12 was two-fold. One was to say how much free 13 calling can you offer.

14 MS. HALLAM: Uh-huh.

15 MS. INNAMORATO: So that's a
16 consideration and that is part of the proposals 17 that are being reviewed, and the second is 18 eliminating commissions.

19 MS. HALLAM: I see.

20 MS. INNAMORATO: So it is not 21 unlimited free calls but rather 45 minutes a day 22 or something -- where -- I don't think we were 23 talking like different jum- -- so you know 24 creating free up- -- some limited free access, 25 and then a base rate that does not include the

1 county profiting from family -- from individuals 2 making phone calls outside of the jail.

3 MS. HALLAM: Yeah. I very much
4 knew that that was the proposal. But again, it's 5 still not free calls versus reduced commissions.
6 There would be an increased amount of free calls 7 available, but phone calls would not be free.
8 You would still pay if you used in excess of that 9 45 minutes a day. I know that's just a number 10 you're using.

11 MS. INNAMORATO: Yes.

12 MS. HALLAM: But free calls is a 13 thing that states across the country do, 14 completely free phone calls in jails. That's not 15 what we're talking about here. We're talking 16 about maybe 45 minutes, an hour in free calls a 17 day, and then anything about that would be at a 18 smaller commission. And so I --

19 MS. INNAMORATO: I'm sorry. Just 20 to clarify. It's not a commission. It is 21 just -- they are covering the cost of the call, 22 so the county is not making any commission. It 23 is just this is how much the service provider 24 provides charges for an outgoing call.

25 MS. HALLAM: Right. Sorry. I

1 meant commission for that.

2 MS. INNAMORATO: Just to clarify.

3 MS. HALLAM: But yes, I very much
4 understand that. Because, again, this was a 5 conversation that there was a lot of talk about 6 five years ago. I introduced an ordinance at 7 County Council, where I still serve today, to 8 eliminate all profits made off the jail. So that 9 would mean nothing was free, but no profits on 10 phone calls, no profits on commissary items.

11 And the reason that we inevitably,
12 other than the political climate sucked a little 13 more than that it does now -- well, actually, 14 probably not true -- but anyways, the reason we 15 decided not to do that is because we realized we 16 that we could instead just take that money that 17 we're getting -- the County at the time was 18 having a 69 percent profit on phone calls that 19 the County was getting in addition to various 20 profits on commissary items, and we realized well 21 why don't we just take that money that's sitting 22 in this fund already and being used for things 23 that arguably the jail's operations budget should 24 be used for, and instead just give it to people, 25 because like multiple public commenters said

1 tonight, it is their money. This is not taxpayer 2 money. No taxpayer dollars go to this. So the 3 argument that you hear often when it comes to 4 let's kill these social services that really,
5 really help people is, oh, I don't want my tax 6 dollars going to that. That's why this is so
7 cool, is it is literally money that is the people 8 who we are giving it back to and we are then 9 distributing it equally to everyone in the jail.

10 If, you know, two and a half years 11 ago when -- you know, this started what,
12 four and a half years ago, five years ago now 13 we've been doing this, but two and a half years
14 ago the jail population was 1,350 people. Today, 15 we're almost at 2,000 people.

16 So if we're talking about 17 sustainability, a great way to make the fund 18 sustainable is to reduce the jail population.
19 You know, I know that's outside of most of the 20 members of the board's jurisdiction, but I just 21 want to be very clear, like, now much cheaper it 22 would be if we were even just at the jail 23 population that we were at two and a half, three 24 years ago.

25 Second of all, I -- you know, this

1 means so much to people when we are in the jail
2 doing our inspections or out in the community,
3 talking to people getting out of jail, or people 4 who have been recently in jail over the past few 5 years, like, they are just so excited to meet two 6 of the people of the team that are responsible 7 for helping them survive in jail. Like jail 8 sucks, and so even when we're talking about 9 45 minutes a day of free phone calls, well, I'm 10 in my cell for 21 hours a day. Sometimes more 11 than that if the jail is on lockdown. What am I 12 filling that time with? Okay, I used up my 45
13 minutes of calls. Now what do I do? I don't 14 have any money, and I'm sitting in my cell.

15 And so I think it's really
16 important to think about like this, something 17 small. This doesn't cost us anything. And we 18 have all the evidence that shows that if -- that 19 nothing is going to change. No new contract is 20 going to be implemented until at least January.
21 We've heard that tonight and I think it could 22 even be longer. Is that true, like the actual 23 implementation of the new contract?

24 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: It's hard to 25 speculate at this point. We're hoping to have a

1 determination in the coming months, and then the 2 contracting will happen. So an exact time frame
3 I don't know.

4 MS. HALLAM: Okay. I appreciate
5 that. And so again, why change anything right 6 now? I very much understand if we want to 7 reevaluate the sustainability of it once there 8 are new contract terms and new commissions, but 9 right now, no one disagrees that if nothing
10 changes at all, it's solvent. If the commissions 11 don't change, if we were under the same contract 12 going forward, it would be solvent.

13 And so with my amendment to do this 14 through January of 2026 with the same amount 15 we've been doing, there is no dispute from anyone 16 involved in any of these conversations that we 17 will be cool to do that. We have enough money to 18 do that, so why change it now.

19 I appreciate these conversations
20 we've been having over the past couple of months
21 about this. I really appreciate the jail and DHS
22 and everybody on this Board, like, coming 23 together about it. This is a great point we're 24 at. Let's keep it how it is for as long as we 25 know we can keep it how it is.

1 If we get this new contract, that's 2 great. Reevaluate the amount we're given. I do 3 very much support the idea that has been brought 4 up now numerous times about doing it twice a 5 month. I think that's a great idea.

6 So again, my support would be $125
7 a month twice a month September through January.
8 That would be what I would ask everyone to agree 9 to do right now. And I think that's all I have.
10 Then Man-E, you're next.

11 MAN-E: All right. Well, I want to 12 start by thanking everyone who attended and 13 provided some public comment. I do think these 14 meetings are important. Of course it was 15 mentioned that at the last meeting we, you know, 16 right afterwards ran to the airport because we 17 were supposed to be in New Orleans at the time.
18 As you can see, I'm in work clothes. I'm going 19 to be going back to the job site that I left to 20 be at this meeting. And it's important to say 21 because most of the commenters commented on the 22 date and time of this meeting. We had no say in 23 it. We had no say at all. It was told to us it 24 was going to happen on this day. Bethany sent 25 the e-mail that said people have jobs, people

1 work, it's in the middle of the day, and the 2 response was sorry, we're not going to change it, 3 all right? So just so that everyone knows, that 4 was not a decision that the Board made, all 5 right? That was a decision that I think one or 6 maybe two made.

7 So we appreciate your presence.
8 And I want to quote some of the things that were 9 said earlier that I took down. I think it was 10 Sharon who we greatly appreciate said that this 11 individual -- Incarcerated Individual Welfare 12 Fund, this $125 that we disburse every month, is 13 one of the few truly just actions that this Board 14 takes. And I really appreciate that.

15 Something that Laura Perkins said
16 too -- of course, we greatly appreciate, said we 17 don't have a wage in the jail. That's important 18 to, you know, raise up. I know it was discussed.
19 It was voted on. I know there were funds put 20 aside, and it hasn't been implemented yet.

21 And, of course, people talk about 22 the clause in the 13th Amendment that says if 23 you're incarcerated then you can be a slave -- or 24 I'm sorry, if you're a convict then you can be a 25 slave, but most of the people at ACJ are not

1 convicted, yet they're not getting paid for 2 anything, all right? So, you know, this money is 3 a way that they survive.

4 And, of course, I'm a big fan of 5 DHS. Erin Dalton and the team do a great job. I
6 appreciate the studies that you did here. And I 7 heard you when you said that 20 percent of the 8 folks inside of there do not get any additional 9 deposits, all right? So 20 percent of 2,000, I'm 10 not real that good at math, I don't see them as 11 just, you know, a percentage point. 400, that's 12 a lot, and I don't see that as a percentage 13 point. I see that as my community members. I 14 see that as some of my family, some of my 15 friends, who I know are relying on those dollars, 16 you know what I mean?

17 You know, I've been around for a
18 while. I probably said this a bunch of times.
19 Commissary support is something that I've done 20 for over six years now, all right, and, you know, 21 and I've been, you know, happy and my bank has 22 been a little bit happy when I say, will, I'll 23 just hold on because you're going to get $125, 24 you know what I'm saying? And I appreciate the 25 fact that, you know, you might not get it if

1 you're not there for over a month. So I am in 2 support of splitting the payments to increase the 3 amount of people who are getting it.

4 And something that I want to raise
5 up, and of course, shout out again to DHS, making 6 this very, very easy and simple to understand, 7 individuals who are incarcerated longer are more
8 likely to receive funds. And the number one 9 demographic of who is receiving those funds,
10 68 percent are black men. They're people -- 11 they're people who look like me, all right? And 12 even if it was just my identity that would, I 13 guess, allow me or make me obligated to represent 14 the people who are in there -- beyond that, it's 15 the fact that I have been incarcerated and I know 16 what it's like to go without food. You know what 17 I mean, I know what it's like to not have hygiene 18 products that agree with you, and I know what 19 it's like to not be able to, you know, contact 20 your family and loved ones.

21 And probably most importantly, and 22 DHS mentioned this, now folks are getting 23 released with some money that gives them an 24 opportunity to, you know, help set them up for 25 success. It helps them to get home. Helps them

1 to maybe get something to eat. Helps them to 2 contact the people.

3 And we've been outside of the jail, 4 believe it or not, since 2019, greeting folks as 5 they get released. And especially over the past 6 few months with the additional like -- or the 7 extended cashier hours, we really haven't been 8 about -- or we haven't -- we haven't been needed 9 to provide as much support as we used to, you
10 know what I mean? Of course, we still show up 11 for the folks who are there, but as far as people 12 who are getting released, because of these funds, 13 they're able to be, you know, self-sustaining 14 and, you know, to a degree.

15 I understand if something changes
16 down the road and we have to reduce it, I'm in 17 favor of that, especially if we're not, you know, 18 profiting off of their calls, if we're not 19 profiting even off of their commissary. And 20 commissary prices are increasing, you know what I 21 mean? I don't know if that's something that's 22 been said today. Every time we go in the jail, 23 people complain about the price of commissary 24 items. As a matter of fact, it was mentioned how 25 a pack of Ramen upstate somewhere is less than a

1 dollar, yet here it's double, triple, quadruple
2 the price. And, of course, that's by design. So 3 the purchasing power is reduced, and now we want 4 to reduce it even more because of, you know,
5 conservatism -- I guess fears or concerns about 6 the future now.

7 I'm in support of continuing at 8 $125, like she said, up until January, until 9 something changes. There hasn't been a change 10 yet. I understand planning for the future. I'm 11 not against that, and I'm not against, you know, 12 taking a change or making a change, even a 13 reduction if the actual system or if the way that 14 these funds are disbursed or the commissions for 15 the commissary or the telecommunications is 16 reduced, I'm in favor of that. I think that's a 17 bridge we should cross when we get there. Yeah.
18 That's it.

19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
20 The writing is on the wall that these commissions 21 are going to be reduced. It is the law starting 22 in 2027, and the jail administration has made it 23 very clear that they are going to enter into a 24 new contract, probably by the end of the year.
25 And when they're reduced, the DHS study says

1 you'll only be able to afford to pay $67 a month 2 to keep this fund sustainable.

3 And I keep hearing about how it
4 will be so awful to have this drastic cut. It 5 will be so traumatic to have this drastic cut.
6 So it seems to me to cut it down to $100 right 7 now really is financially responsible. It's the 8 responsible thing to do so that you can help the 9 greatest number of people over the greatest 10 period of time, and we will likely have to cut it 11 more in January. It will be a less drastic cut 12 if we do. It's just -- to me, the writing is on 13 the wall. You keep saying unknown, unknown.
14 It's known. There's a law, and there's a new 15 contract being negotiated.

16 MS. HALLAM: Judge, I'd like to 17 call the question on my Motion to amend --

18 Yes, I will uncall my question for 19 right now.

20 MR. PERKINS: Director Dalton, a 21 couple questions. One is if we -- I looked at 22 the spreadsheet. It looked like it was just 23 based -- just closely solvent if we disburse once 24 a month. If we disburse twice a month, is it 25 solvent, assuming everything remained the same?

1 DIRECTOR DALTON: I'm looking to 2 Katie because I haven't played with that.

3 MS. COLLINS: Yeah, we can follow
4 up and give you a table, but if we -- if we're 5 now disbursing to, you know, 85 percent, or 6 74 percent in terms of 63 percent, it won't -- it 7 will -- we'll be spending more money, correct.
8 So we can give you the amounts and actually 9 calculate it out, but we haven't done that.

10 DIRECTOR DALTON: Just to follow
11 up, does that mean that 67 might not be right?

12 MS. COLLINS: It means that the 120
13 sustainable might not be right.

14 DIRECTOR DALTON: Okay. Okay. So 15 yeah, just for the --

16 MS. GRIFFIN: I think she just 17 said -- I think the answer to that question was 18 the 67 -- is the 67 --

19 MS. COLLINS: Right. No, I was 20 just -- it was that currently the amount coming 21 in and going out is about equal, and that's when 22 we disburse to 63 percent of the jail population
23 on a monthly basis. If they -- if you disburse 24 more than once a month, you'll just be disbursing 25 to more people and therefore the likely -- we'll

1 get you the actual number, but likely it will run 2 out faster. It will be not as -- it will not be 3 sustainable at $125.

4 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: It
5 won't necessarily be more people though. I mean, 6 it will be more people will receive funds.

7 MS. COLLINS: Right.

8 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
9 More of the population, but it will also cut some 10 people out.

11 MS. COLLINS: Right. Exactly.

12 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: So it's 13 not --

14 MS. COLLINS: We can model it out.
15 You're right. You're right.

16 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: It's 17 kind of speculation.

18 MS. COLLINS: Yep. Yep. So we can 19 put a table together and send it to you with the 20 scenarios. But correct. Like if -- it will --

21 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: But it
22 will be more fair, we know that.

23 MS. COLLINS: Right.

24 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Ms.
25 Griffin, do you have a question.

1 MS. GRIFFIN: Yeah, I have a couple
2 of things. So I absolutely appreciate everybody
3 studying this matter. I truly do believe there's 4 consensus about -- on the Board about 5 understanding the importance and the positive 6 impact of these payments on the incarcerated while 7 also facing the reality that we have to be 8 fiscally responsible and that there eventually 9 will be a decrease of some -- at some point, so 10 it's how we get there.

11 I am so concerned about 12 decreasing -- even that at $100 starting next 13 month. You know, if someone cut my salary
14 without any notice, it never -- it would be a 15 strain. People even, if not budgeting-wise, and 16 this money, mentally wise, I think people prepare 17 for it and plan for it.

18 So one of my questions is either
19 now or when we have to reduce it, is it feasible 20 to do a staggered reduction, you know, $125 and 21 $110 and then $115 until we get it -- and maybe 22 it has to go more quickly than that. But is it a 23 possibility of a staggered reduction?

24 MR. PERKINS: I think we could 25 decide that, yeah. We could do that if we want.

1 DIRECTOR DALTON: There's no impact
2 on the jail, right, to change the number? Okay.
3 It's the Board's call.

4 MR. PERKINS: Barb, to that 5 point --

6 MS. GRIFFIN: With this time of the 7 year -- you know, I know that the majority of the 8 money spent on commissary, but I also know it 9 will impact the families. There have been 10 families who have said this is -- he pays his 11 child support with that money. With respect to 12 the time, we're coming up on the holidays. It 13 will be a tough time I think to reduce the -- to 14 reduce the payments.

15 So I am in favor of doing it twice
16 a month. My inclination is to keep it at $125
17 through January and then possibly think about 18 some sort of staggered reduction.

19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Just so
20 you know, incarcerated people's support orders 21 are suspended when they're in jail, so they don't 22 owe child support. And I don't think anybody 23 spends this money on child support, or fines, or 24 restitution.

25 MS. HALLAM: Absolutely, people

1 send this home to their family to help them take 2 care of their kids. It may not be legal child 3 support, but absolutely.

4 MR. PERKINS: Well, related to the 5 point of the incremental reduction, I think that 6 there's -- I think the earnest from the 7 Executive's Office has used this phrase with this 8 fund, what's the highest and best use, what's the 9 smart way to spend the money? I think there's a 10 fair question of whether it's better to drop the 11 $125 to $100 now and then from $100 to $75 if we 12 get the contract that we're all hoping for, and 13 you know, versus if we do nothing now, then we 14 have to drop it from $125 to $60 in January.
15 That is a more drastic reduction, which will be 16 probably more disruptive than the $25 reduction.

17 It is hypothetical, but that's the 18 goal. I think that's the goal the Executive has 19 indicated. That's my personal goal. I don't 20 think we should be profiting from these phone 21 calls. And I understand the ecosystem was 22 different five years ago, but, you know, it is 23 true, certainly, that the money is people who is 24 in jail's money and their family -- well, their 25 money, but we taking -- but they also -- the

1 money is from them. Like we're charging them 2 these exorbitant fees, 100 percent commission for 3 the phone calls. So it's like, yes, it is their 4 money, but first we take it out of their pocket
5 and then we redistribute it. And given that that 6 was the reality, I think that -- that was the 7 best use of the funds at the time. I like the 8 fact that there's agency of it. I agree with the 9 public commenters that we shouldn't spend it on 10 Programming. We shouldn't spend it on the 11 Discharge and Release Center. It should be -- 12 those are things the jail should pay for, not 13 individuals and their families.

14 But to me, it's a policy question,
15 and is it better to go from $125 to $60 in five 16 months, or is it better to go $100 now, maybe 17 save some money, and then kind of see where we're 18 at in January. I think that's a fair question 19 and a challenging question. I think reasonable 20 people can disagree.

21 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Man-E.

22 MAN-E: Yeah. I just want to add
23 that I understand we're planning for the future.
24 And like I said, I'm not against a reduction 25 whenever we get to that point. But I've been

1 coming to these meetings for a while, and I
2 remember probably two years ago now, Corey 3 O'Connor saying that we're going to run out of 4 money, right? And it still hasn't happened. I 5 mean, he's been saying that for a long time, and 6 it hasn't happened.

7 And if we reduce it, thinking,
8 okay, we're going to run out of money eventually, 9 the people who are there now are going to be 10 paying the price for it, you know what I'm 11 saying? That means there -- that there will be 12 probably hundreds -- or at least hundreds of 13 people who are not going to be able to eat, not 14 going to be able to communicate and are going to 15 leave the jail with nothing because of something 16 that we're planning for that will eventually 17 hypothetically happen. But right now, what's 18 happening, people are in the jail, and they need 19 to eat, you know what I'm saying? They need to 20 communicate with their people, and when they get 21 released, you know, they need some money to 22 support themselves, you know what I'm saying?

23 As you said, it's their money. And 24 I think we should cross that bridge when we get 25 to it in January.

1 MS. HALLAM: Thank you, Man-E. I
2 would like to call the question --

3 (Applause.)

4 MS. HALLAM: I would like to call
5 the question on my first amendment to Mr.
6 Perkins's Motion, which is changing the $100 to 7 $125. And I would -- again, I think I already 8 got a second to this.

10 Man-E.

11 MS. HALLAM: $125 instead of $100.

12 MAN-E: Yes.

13 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Ms.
14 Hallam.

15 MS. HALLAM: Yes.

16 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Mr.
17 Perkins.

18 MR. PERKINS: No.

19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: I vote
20 no.

21 Ms. Innamorato.

22 MS. INNAMORATO: Yes.

23 MS. GRIFFIN: Yes.

24 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Ankur?

25 MR. SAKARIA: No.

1 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Judge
2 Bigley.

3 JUDGE BIGLEY: No.

4 Did you hear me?

5 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: I heard
6 you vote no.

7 Ms. Griffin.

8 MS. GRIFFIN: Yes.

9 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: So
10 that's four yeses and four nos.

11 MS. HALLAM: Well, three nos.

12 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Well, 13 four.

14 MS. HALLAM: There's only seven
15 members of the Board here. So four wins. So 16 $125.

17 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
18 Ms. Hallam, Ankur's vote does count.

19 MS. HALLAM: Ankur's vote does not 20 count. Judge, please don't do this again.

21 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: I'm the 22 chairperson.

23 AUDIENCE MEMBER: It's the statute.

24 MS. HALLAM: But it's law, Judge.

25 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: There's

1 a tie. The amendment doesn't carry.

2 AUDIENCE MEMBER: Do your job.

3 MS. HALLAM: But there's not a tie.

4 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: You
5 know what, get her out of here. I'm sick of her 6 disruptions.

7 MS. HALLAM: That was not her.

8 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Who was
9 it?

10 MS. HALLAM: That was not her.

11 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Who was 12 it?

13 I warned -- stop it, the audience.
14 Stop talking out of turn, or you will be removed.

15 MS. HALLAM: Don't kick them out of 16 this meeting. Don't make it a thing. Don't make 17 it a thing. We're almost done, Judge. We've got 18 five minutes left. They'll chill.

19 Judge, let's go.

20 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Let her
21 stay. No more outbursts or I will have you 22 removed.

23 Okay. The Motion--

24 MS. HALLAM: Okay. The --

25 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: I'm the

1 chairperson, Ms. Hallam. Motion does not carry.

2 MS. HALLAM: Judge, we've raised
3 the same law. The same law --

4 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: The 5 Motion does not carry, so now we're going to have 6 a Motion -- a vote on Mr. Perkins's Motion to 7 distribute $100 per month.

8 Man-E.

9 MS. HALLAM: I still have two other 10 amendments and that one did pass because it was 11 four to three. So.

12 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
13 So now there's an amendment to change Mr. Perkins
14 Motion to read September through January of '25.
15 We will vote on -- '26, I'm sorry. We will vote 16 on that.

17 Man-E.

18 MAN-E: Yes.

19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Ms.
20 Hallam.

21 MS. HALLAM: Yes.

22 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Mr.
23 Perkins?

24 MR. PERKINS: Yes.

25 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: I vote

1 no.

2 Ms. Innamorato.

4 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Ankur.

6 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Judge

7 Bigley.

9 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Ms.

10 Griffin.

11 MS. GRIFFIN: Yes.

12 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Motion

13 carries.

14 Okay. Now we have a Motion to 15 approve the monthly disbursements of $100 for 16 September of '24 through January of --

17 MS. HALLAM: Judge, for the record,
18 I do object to the fact that you're saying it's 19 only $100. Ankur's vote does not count.

20 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE:

21 Actually, Mr. Perkins also amended to distribute 22 the money twice a month, the 1st and the 15th.

23 MR. PERKINS: Yes. Judge, I didn't 24 know if Councilmember Griffin wanted to -- were 25 you indicating that you were going to amend the

1 Motion to make it an incremental reduction or was 2 that like -- I didn't know if that was a Motion 3 or not.

4 MS. HALLAM: What, lower than $100?

5 MR. PERKINS: No, to make it an 6 incremental reduction more than -- like $115, 7 $110. That was an idea or that was a Motion to 8 amend?

9 MS. GRIFFIN: It was an idea, but 10 would people be acceptable to -- I could propose 11 that as a Motion, an amendment to your Motion.

12 MS. HALLAM: Yeah. I just have a 13 question about it, Barbara. I could be 14 supportive of that if it was -- are you saying 15 like $125 in September, $115 in November, $105 in 16 December, and $100 in January, get it down to 17 $100?

18 MS. GRIFFIN: Yeah.

19 MS. HALLAM: 25, 15 -- I was saying
20 25, 15, 5, 100.

21 MS. GRIFFIN: 125, 115, 105.

22 MS. HALLAM: And then 100 for 23 January and we'd reevaluate in February, so it 24 gets to where they want to be. It's not a 25 drastic reduction right away. It's like ten

1 bucks a month.

2 MS. GRIFFIN: Yeah.

3 MS. HALLAM: I'll second that.

4 MR. SAKARIA: Is it once a month or 5 the 1st and the 15th?

6 MS. HALLAM: I think we're doing
7 1st and 15th. Did we vote on that yet?

8 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: No, we 9 didn't.

10 What is your Motion, Ms. Griffin?
11 What is your proposed amendments, Ms. Griffin?

12 MS. GRIFFIN: I propose the 13 amendment that the funds be distributed beginning 14 in September of 2025 in the amount of $125 a 15 month, in October $115 a month, November $105.

16 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: And 17 December --

18 MS. HALLAM: December and January 19 would be $100.

21 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
22 Man-E. Vote on the amendment. Man-E.

23 MAN-E: Yes.

24 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Hallam.

25 MS. HALLAM: Yes.

1 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE:
2 Perkins.
4 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: No.
5 Innamorato.
6 MS. INNAMORATO: Yes.
7 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Ankur.
8 MR. SAKARIA: And just to be clear,
9 this is a one-time disbursement?
10 MS. HALLAM: We haven't gotten to 11 that part yet. It's one time for now. We'll 12 amend it later, but your vote doesn't count 13 anyways.
14 MR. SAKARIA: I vote yes.
15 MS. HALLAM: No, that's ridiculous.
16 It's the law.
17 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Bigley.
18 JUDGE BIGLEY: No.
19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE:
20 Griffin. It's your Motion.
21 MS. GRIFFIN: Yes.
22 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
23 Motion carries.
24 MS. HALLAM: Thank you, Barbara.
25 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Now we

1 have the amendment to divide the payments into 2 two, payable on the 1st and the 15th.

3 Man-E.

4 MAN-E: Yes.

5 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Hallam.

7 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE:

8 Perkins.

9 MR. PERKINS: Yes.

10 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Yes.

11 Innamorato.

13 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Ankur.

16 JUDGE BIGLEY: Yes.

17 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE:

18 Griffin.

20 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.

21 MS. HALLAM: Motion passes, but 22 again, Judge, I object to Ankur voting on that 23 Motion.

24 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: I heard
25 you with the ten other times you said it.

1 MS. HALLAM: Thank you. I wanted
2 to make -- solidify it for the record.

3 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
4 So that's it.

5 ADJOURNMENT

6 MS. INNAMORATO: Motion to adjourn.

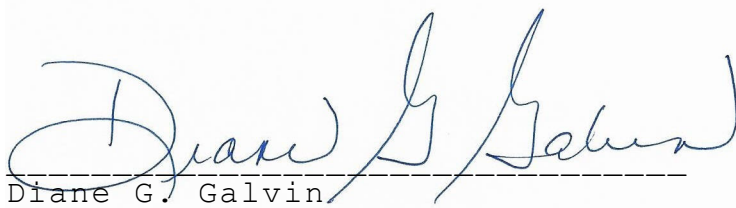

7 MR. PERKINS: Second.

8 MS. HALLAM: So moved.

9 (Whereupon, the hearing was 10 concluded at 1:20 p.m.)
