(4:17 o'clock p.m.)

CALL TO ORDER AND ATTENDANCE

JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.

Good afternoon, everybody. This meeting is called to order.

We are starting late because we had an executive session regarding personnel issues.

Roll Call.

MS. GRIFFIN: Barbara Griffin.

MS. WEISE: Amy Weise Clements.

MR. KRAUS: Kevin Kraus.

MS. INNAMORATO: Sara Innamorato.

JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Susan
Evashavik.

MR. PERKINS: Rob Perkins Black.

MS. HALLAM: Bethany Hallam.

MAN-E: Man-E.

JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Thank
you.

COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS REPORTS

JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE:
Community Corrections Reports. Passages to Recovery.

And Kelly Bigley has now arrived.

1 MS. SHILLER: Hello. My name is 2 Suelynn Shiller. I'm Chief of Staff at Passages
3 to Recovery, and we currently are at 31 4 residents, and we have 25 open beds.

5 Anything else?

6 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE:
7 Questions?

8 MS. HALLAM: Yeah, just one. What 9 is the process, like when you have open beds, do 10 you call the jail or the courts or something and 11 say, hey, please send us people. We have all 12 these open beds?

13 MS. SHILLER: Yes, we're working 14 with the jail to fill beds. We had a large 15 influx of clients that came in in the same time 16 frame, and now -- so we were at, you know, at our 17 maximum for a number of months, and then very 18 quickly, everybody is getting released. And so 19 we're just working to get everything back up and 20 running.

21 MS. HALLAM: Okay. Great. And is 22 your funding dependent on how many of those beds
23 are filled, or are you allocated the same funding 24 based off of if they're filled or empty?

25 MS. SHILLER: Our funding is based

1 on -- on beds filled.

2 MS. HALLAM: Okay. So you have the 3 same motivation as me, to get people out of the 4 jail and into those beds?

5 MS. SHILLER: Abs- -- absolutely.

6 MS. HALLAM: Thank you.

7 MS. SHILLER: Absolutely.

8 MS. HALLAM: Thank you very much.

9 MR. PERKINS: You said you had 25
10 open beds. How many -- what is your capacity for 11 beds?

12 MS. SHILLER: 56. We have 56 beds.

13 MR. PERKINS: Okay. Thank you.

14 MS. SHILLER: Uh-huh.

16 you.

17 MS. SHILLER: Thank you.

18 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Renewal
19 Center.

20 MR. ZAK: Good evening. Adam Zak
21 reporting for Renewal, Incorporated. We're 22 currently contracted with the ACJ for 180
23 alternative housing beds. The breakdown is we 24 currently have 98 males in our work-release
25 program, and 32 males in our drug and alcohol

1 program. We have 12 females in our work-release
2 program, and 2 females in our drug and alcohol
3 program.

4 We have a total of 130 males, 14
5 females, total contracted beds, 144. We have 36 6 beds available. We have plenty of room in our 7 drug and alcohol program. We have 14 beds 8 available for females and 30 beds available for 9 our males. That's in the drug and alcohol
10 program.

11 For the month of February, we had 12 26 successful releases. We had 7 absconders or 13 walk-aways, and we had 9 program revocations.

14 The ambulance had to come to the 15 Boulevard of the Allies twice, once for sudden 16 illness and once for an adverse drug reaction.

17 Also, for the month of February, we 18 had zero deaths, zero non-fatal overdoses, we had 19 1 use of force incident. The sheriffs had to 20 restrain an individual who was being returned to 21 the Allegheny County Jail, zero self-harm 22 incidents, and zero suicide attempts.

23 And just this morning, we had 24 several men and women, they participated in an 25 MAT focus group to get their feedback for 1 education and awareness purposes for MAT.

2 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE:

3 Questions? Bethany?

4 MS. HALLAM: Hi. Okay. A couple
5 questions. First one, just checking some math.
6 So you had said that you have 36 beds open out of 7 180, but then separately said you had 14 female 8 and 30 male open drug and alcohol beds, and those 9 numbers are different. So I'm just wondering if 10 you can explain.

11 MR. ZAK: I think we contract more
12 for the drug and alcohol program.

13 MS. HALLAM: But -- so you have 44
14 open beds in drug and alcohol? So do you have 44
15 plus 36 total open beds in all of Renewal? You 16 have 44 open beds in drug and alcohol, and then 17 36 open beds in work-release?

18 MR. ZAK: I have to look at those 19 numbers further.

20 MS. HALLAM: Okay. Yeah, because 21 that is a big difference. I mean, that would be 22 more than double the open beds that you had said 23 that there were, so I'm just -- would be very 24 interested in that information.

25 The second thing is --

1 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Ms. Hallam?

2 MS. HALLAM: Oh, yes.

3 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: So we 4 contract with Renewal for 180 beds, but those 5 treatment beds, people can be released from the 6 jail and go to treatment at Renewal, so they have 7 additional beds. But those are not beds that 8 we're contracting with them for.

9 MS. HALLAM: Okay. So there's only 10 36 beds for the jail to send people to.

11 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Correct.

12 MS. HALLAM: But there are 44
13 judges after they release them from jail can send 14 them to Renewal?

15 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Correct.

16 MS. HALLAM: Thank you very, very 17 much. That's helpful. I had thought previously 18 that everyone in Renewal was still in the custody
19 of the DOC somehow. Okay. Cool.

20 Thank you for that, Connie. I 21 appreciate that.

22 My next question is -- actually,
23 I'm glad you brought that sheriffs thing up. So 24 I actually saw that sheriff arresting someone in 25 the lobby of Renewal and was really thrown off

1 because I thought we had talked in the past that 2 the way someone gets revoked from Renewal and 3 sent back to the jail was a jail decision. We 4 had asked that question of Renewal in the past.
5 And so I, of course, you know, saw this kind of 6 pretty egregious detention and, you know, walked 7 in and was like videotaping and doing everything 8 I was supposed to do.

9 But anyways, when I had asked the 10 sheriffs like what was going on, they said that 11 Renewal called us to come arrest this guy and 12 that this is something that happens pretty 13 regularly. And that's the first I've ever been 14 told that -- about the sheriffs arresting someone 15 at Renewal before, so I'm just wondering if you 16 can speak to that, and like, the process by which 17 that happens and how often that happens, because 18 I've been on this Board six years and have never 19 been told that that happened like you just told 20 us tonight.

21 MR. ZAK: So for this particular 22 incident, this was an administrative return. He 23 was brought over from the jail earlier that 24 morning, and he had to go back to the jail to get 25 medically and mentally -- mentally health -- for

1       mental health, he had to get a clearance.

2                   MS. HALLAM:   Okay.   Well, the one
3       that I witnessed that I'm talking about then is a 4       separate incident, because they told me that he 5       was called by Renewal for causing a disturbance.
6       And, you know, I just asked them do you need me 7       to call someone?   Do you need any help?   And they 8       were very clear that it was a disturbance that he 9       had made, allegedly, and that Renewal called them 10      to remove him and return him to the jail.

11                  MR. ZAK:   I don't know which 12      incident you're referring to.

13                  MS. HALLAM:   So that does happen
14      often then?   I mean, I can look up the date of it 15      specifically, and we can talk about it after, but 16      I'm just trying --

17                  MR. ZAK:   Sure.

18                  MS. HALLAM:  -- to understand 19      broadly how often is Renewal calling the sheriffs 20      to return someone to the jail?

21                  DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK:   Ms. Hallam,
22      can I --

23                  MS. HALLAM:   Yes, please, Connie.
24      Thank you.

25                  DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK:   So the

1       sheriffs -- when a decision is made up to revoke 2       someone back to the jail, that decision is made 3       between a staff person from the jail, as well as 4       alternative housing. The sheriffs do all of our 5       transports.

6                   MS. HALLAM: Uh-huh.

7                   DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: So when a 8       determination -- a determination is made that 9       someone is being revoked back to the jail, the 10      sheriffs are notified. They pick-up and they 11      transport that person back to the jail. So the 12      sheriffs always take custody of those people when 13      those incidents happen.

14                  MS. HALLAM: So this incident where 15      he was causing a disturbance, allegedly, and 16      who -- so what would happen? Like, can you just 17      explain to me the process? Like, does Renewal 18      call, because how would the jail know to call the 19      sheriffs unless Renewal called and said this 20      person is causing a disturbance?

21                  DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Well, the 22      jail -- the jail does -- the jail does not call 23      the sheriffs. Renewal does. So the jail -- 24      Renewal will notify a jail person, and sometimes, 25      there's in-person hearings that we have with

1 individuals in alternative housing to make a
2 determination.

3 MS. HALLAM: Uh-huh.

4 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Other times
5 if the person is a threat to themselves or other, 6 the jail, via phone, will make the decision with 7 Renewal, like, yes, let's get this person back to 8 the jail, sometimes for their own safety.

9 And so then Renewal will call the 10 sheriffs and alert them that they need somebody 11 to be picked up.

12 MS. HALLAM: So is that something 13 that happens very, very quickly? Like you're 14 saying alleged disturbance, all of those calls 15 and connections are being made?

16 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Yes. Uh-huh.

17 MS. HALLAM: Okay. And how often
18 does that happen? Is that data that you guys 19 keep? Like, how often is that --

20 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: How many 21 revocations did you say you had this month?

22 MS. HALLAM: Yeah, so all of those 23 revocations?

24 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Correct.

25 MS. HALLAM: Were those all done in

1       this way, where someone is literally put in 2       handcuffs in the entryway of Renewal --

3               DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK:   Correct.

4               MS. HALLAM:   -- and removed to a 5       sheriff's vehicle?

6               DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK:   Correct.

7               MR. ZAK:   We had 9 revocations for 8       the month.   So some of those were actually from 9       the courts.   They went to court, and they got --

10              MS. HALLAM:   Right.

11              MR. ZAK:   -- and they got state 12       sentences, so that -- that occurred.

13              MS. HALLAM:   So all of the 14       revocations are not someone being handcuffed by 15       the sheriffs in the lobby of Renewal?

16              MR. ZAK:   No.

17              MS. HALLAM:   Okay.

18              MR. ZAK:   Sometimes they happen at 19       the courthouse.   Sometimes they get detained out 20       in the community.

21              MS. HALLAM:   Right.   Sometimes they 22       just leave and don't come back, and you -- and 23       they abscond?

24              MR. ZAK:   Correct.

25              MS. HALLAM:   And they would get

1       revoked for that?

2                   MR. ZAK:   Correct.

3                   MS. HALLAM:   So my question again
4       is how many people this month, I guess since 5       we're here today, how many people in the past 6       month were removed by the sheriffs from Renewal?

7                   MR. ZAK:   Probably about 6.

8                   MS. HALLAM:   6, okay.   Thank you 9       very much.

10                  MAN-E:   Yeah.   I just have one 11       question.   I think you read the number of 12       ambulances that were at the Boulevard of the 13       Allies, but what about Second Avenue?

14                  MR. ZAK:   I don't have any data for 15       Second Avenue.   I don't think the ambulance came 16       to Second Avenue for the month of January.

17                  MAN-E:   Okay.   I'll follow up with 18       you on that because I've seen it a couple of 19       times -- one time.

21       you.

22                  MR. ZAK:   Thanks.

23                  JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE:
24       Electronic Monitoring.

25                  MR. HARRIS:   Good afternoon, Board.

1 Renawn Harris, Adult Probation, H-A-R-R-I-S.

2 So for the reporting period, we 3 have 528 supervised individuals on the electronic 4 monitoring program. Of those individuals, 68 5 successfully completed the program, and 10 were 6 returned for program violations.

7 I'll take any questions.

8 (No response.)

9 MR. HARRIS: All right. Thank you.

11 you.

12 Before we move on to Public
13 Comment, I would like to have a moment of silence
14 for three deaths that we have had in connection 15 with the jail. Two team members passed away in 16 January, Chuck Ruslavage, who was a juvenile 17 science teacher. He passed away on January 10.
18 And Marjorie Dixon, who was the Community 19 Services Director for Three Rivers Youth. She 20 passed away on January 12th. They both dedicated 21 their careers to serving the residents of 22 Allegheny County, and they will be deeply missed.

23 Also, we had the death of an 24 incarcerated person, Mr. Mark Schwartz, on 25 February 1st of this year, and I would like to 1 have a moment of silence in honor of all three of 2 them.

3 Thank you.

4 PUBLIC COMMENT ON BOARD ACTIONS AND MOTIONS

5 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: And 6 moving on now to Public Comment on Board Action 7 and Motions. Sharon Bonavoglia.

8 MS. BONAVOGLIA: We at PIIN want to 9 remind all the members of the JOB that the 100 10 payment to every resident in the jail is simply 11 giving them back the money that they and their 12 families and friends are overcharged by high 13 prices for commissary items, phone calls, and 14 computer use. It is a truly just endeavor
15 instituted by this Board.

16 That money also helps to keep the 17 jail a safer place for financially vulnerable 18 residents who now have access to funds for their 19 own purchases. We would like to remind this 20 Board that the vast majority of our neighbors 21 inside the jail have not been convicted of a 22 crime, and while waiting for the often-slow 23 wheels of justice to move forward, are kept from 24 jobs and therefore have lost cars, housing, and 25 their ability to pay taxes. Please show your

1 support for this small measure of justice by 2 continually voting yes on this Motion tonight and 3 in the future. We at PIIN are watching.

4 I would also like to personally
5 thank you, Judge Evashavik, for having that 6 moment of silence for the three people that 7 passed. PIIN, as an interfaith organization, 8 very much appreciates that. And I would also 9 like to thank Connie Clark for the vast amount of 10 work she's done to help PIIN with the book drive 11 that we did.

12 And now, if you are able, please 13 rise for the reading of the names of the dead.

14 Richard Lenhart, Robert Blake,
15 Cody Still, Daniel Pastorek, John Brady, 16 Martin Bucek, Robert Harper, Vinckley Harris, 17 Justin Brady, Paul Allen, Roger Millspaugh, 18 Paul Spisak, Gerald Thomas, Jerry Lee Ross, Jr., 19 Victor Joseph Zilinek, Ronald Andrus,
20 Anthony Talotta, William Spencer,
21 James Washington, Damon Leroy Kayes, Tim Manino, 22 Douglas Bonomo, Zachary Sahm, Nicole Baruffi, 23 Richard Sciubba, II, Terrance Clowney, Tracey 24 Hickey, Justin McCullough, Nathan Piernik and 25 Mark Schwartz.

1 Thank you.

2 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Jodi
3 Lincoln.

4 MS. LINCOLN: Hi. Thank you for 5 your time today. I'm here to advocate for the 6 continuation of the $100 monthly commissary
7 stipend incarcerated for folks at the Allegheny 8 County Jail. Over the past few years, the 9 stipends from the Incarcerated Individual's 10 Welfare Fund has been a lifeline for people 11 inside the jail to maintain contact with the 12 outside via the Get-Out Messaging Platform calls, 13 have access to educational and entertainment 14 materials on their tablets, and purchase basic 15 needs items at the commissary shop.

16 Our current carceral system in 17 America is a predatory system built on private 18 equity companies and billionaires trying to 19 profit off some of the most vulnerable and 20 marginalized people in this country. Allegheny
21 County participates in this system, signing
22 contracts with companies like Global Tel Link, 23 Viapath Technologies, and Oasis Commissary, 24 for-profit companies that are designed to extract 25 wealth from incarcerated people and their

1 families for the benefit of their shareholders 2 and investors.

3 Part of these contracts include
4 kickbacks or commission to Allegheny County Jail 5 from the profits made, which is what funds the 6 IIWF. It needs to be continually repeated that 7 the IIWF is funded directly by money spent by 8 incarcerated people and their support networks on 9 phone calls, music, food items, toiletries, 10 et cetera. We should not think of the IIWF as 11 the jail's money, and it is taken from people in 12 the jail through the system of prison
13 profiteering in the first place.

14 Since there has not been an 15 appetite by the JOB or the county to change our 16 contracts and reject this system, redistribution 17 of IIWF funds through these direct payments to 18 incarcerated people is the next best thing.

19 Everyone in the jail, despite pod
20 level or disciplinary status, receives these 21 funds and are empowered to use them to meet their 22 needs, whether that's purchasing food they need 23 to supplement the kitchen, a new pair of socks, a 24 funny movie, or phone calls to their loved ones.

25 If you have the desire to vote

1       against continuing this funding, I ask you to 2       talk to anyone who has been incarcerated at ACJ 3       for an extended period of time and ask how 4       important that money has been to them. I bet it 5       will change your mind.

6               We also need to remember that our 7       police and judicial system, both 8       disproportionately impact lower-income people 9       through embedded systems like racial profiling, 10      neighborhood targeting, and cash bail. The 11      financial burden of incarceration on people and 12      their support networks is significant and can 13      have an impact on people for years. Reducing 14      this burden is not just good for the people at 15      ACJ, but for all of our communities here in 16      Allegheny County.

17              Thank you.

18              JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Ross
19      Tedder.

20              MR. TEDDER: What's going on,
21      y'all. I'm going to be brief, so I have a whole 22      lot to say, but I'm echoing what both Sharon and 23      the person before me had to say.

24              Y'all got to continue this $100
25      that you give the people every month, right?

1       You're talking about $100.  You're talking about 2       one trip to Aldi, maybe, right?

3                       How many of y'all have ever been 4       through a period where you had to ration toilet 5       paper?  How many of y'all have ever been through 6       a period where you had to think about how many 7       phone minutes I got so I got to choose who I can 8       call and who I can't?  It's not fun.  It doesn't 9       feel good.  You don't come out of that period 10      feeling rejuvenated.  You don't come out of that 11      period feeling like, oh, I'm ready to take on the 12      world.  You come out of it feeling like shit, 13      right.

14                     Ostensibly, all of our cultural 15      system, right, is to rehabilitate people, 16      ostensibly.  Let's just take that at face value.
17      If that is the case, if that is what we're trying 18      to do, we are failing our mission gravely, right?

19                     And so I know many of you, you 20      know, are not necessarily opposed to this.  A lot 21      of you do support this, but for anybody that's on 22      the fence, just think about what it would feel 23      like to think about how many plies you can afford 24      of toilet paper each day.

25                     Thank you.

1 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Cory
2 Roma.

3 MR. ROMA: Cory Roma. I'm just 4 going to echo off of what everybody else has 5 said. I'm here to speak in favor of continuing 6 the $100 IIWF fund for the -- up until May. This 7 is a pivotal program that helps people. I'm at 8 the -- outside of the jail every Wednesday with 9 Man-E and Bethany talking to people coming out of 10 the jail, and I have heard time and time and time 11 again how integral this is to -- for people 12 trying to communicate with their loved ones, 13 trying to get more commissary stuff.

14 Anything that they need, this 15 helps. You're helping people, and you're not 16 only helping people, you're returning money, 17 like, to them that they have spent. So please 18 continue this program into the future, and I 19 appreciate your time.

21 you.

22 REVIEW OF THE MEETING MINUTES FOR JANUARY 8, 2026

23 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Can I
24 have a Motion to approve the meeting minutes of 25 January 8?

1 MS. GRIFFIN: So moved.

2 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Second?

3 MS. HALLAM: Second.

4 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: All in 5 favor?

6 (Chorus of ayes.)

7 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Any 8 opposed?

9 (No response.)

10 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Motion
11 carries.

12 OLD BUSINESS

13 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Old
14 Business. Does any committee have an update?

15 MS. HALLAM: Okay. I'll give an 16 update on.

17 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Which 18 committee?

19 MS. HALLAM: -- we have been 20 working on -- I don't even know which committee
21 we're doing that in? Is that the Incarceree 22 Welfare Fund Committee?

23 MR. PERKINS: Yeah.

24 MS. HALLAM: Is that which one
25 we've been working on it in? We have been

1 working for quite some time now on the policy for 2 notification when people are hospitalized in the 3 jail. The new Warden and his administration have 4 been doing a pretty, I would say, stellar job 5 lately at death notifications, which wasn't 6 something we had even a few short years ago.

7 But this is specifically about when 8 people are hospitalized, and their families don't 9 know where they are. Their attorneys don't know 10 where they are. Often, we, as Jail Oversight 11 Board Members, don't know when someone is 12 hospitalized.

13 And so I know I said last month
14 that we would have it this month, but I think we 15 will have it next month. We've been working 16 closely with the jail administration, trying to 17 figure out the actual logistics of how soon 18 someone is notified, how long does someone have 19 to be in the jail before notification happens, 20 and the best way to go about that notification.

21 So I will again, and hopefully for 22 the last time say, that next month we plan to 23 bring that to the full Board.

24 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Thank
25 you. Any other updates?

1 MR. PERKINS: With respect to the 2 Healthcare Subcommittee, we've been working on a
3 few things, but the one thing I wanted to share 4 is I met with a monitor, Dr. Lee, who I believe 5 is from Yale Medical School, who is responsible 6 for ensuring that we are complying with the 7 Howard Settlement with respect to the mental 8 health issues in the jail, and I thought that was 9 a really encouraging conversation.

10 First of all, she's a very 11 impressive person. I think she comes at this 12 with a -- from a physician's perspective of 13 wanting to make sure that we care for the people 14 properly, medically, who are in our care. And 15 she was also honest about accountability and 16 where we're doing well and where we can improve.

17 And I asked her some questions 18 about, you know, where we started and where we 19 are today and where we're headed towards, and she 20 shared that when she stated working with the 21 healthcare staff in the jail and where mental 22 health care was at that time -- there was a 23 lawsuit that found that there was not adequate 24 mental health care at the time -- you know, 25 starting from when she began working with the

1 jail -- I think she's on her fourth quarterly 2 report or fourth update report at this time --
3 fourth or fifth -- you know, that she's seen 4 dramatic improvement.

5 And, you know, she talked about 6 culture. That's a term that's used a lot from 7 various leadership as far as what we can do, and 8 she talked about examples of when she first came 9 to the jail and there was a requirement that we 10 do, for example, deescalation training, or trauma 11 informed training, that those trainings weren't 12 necessarily robust and there was a -- a concern 13 that a lot of the people involved in the training 14 were particularly engaged.

15 And she shared that -- you know,
16 she gave feedback. I think these trainings need 17 to be longer. I think they need to be more 18 interactive and engaging, and she came back 19 under -- her visit last time, and she said that 20 these trainings that used to be an hour were 21 eight hours. And she went to these trainings and 22 watched the level of engagement, and it was a -- 23 you know, night and day as far as how much people 24 were involved, how much they cared.

25 And I thought it was pretty clever

1       how they -- the instructors oftentimes offering 2       specific examples of when deescalation training
3       worked. There were people that were previously 4       doubters. People said that this is stupid.
5       You're wasting my time. Why am I going to these 6       training?

7                       These are the people that are 8       teaching newer cadets and other people in the 9       jail that these tactics work. These reduce uses 10      of force, and the data has borne that out that we 11      have less uses of force than we used to with 12      respect to a lot of these issues. Deescalation 13      training works.

14                     You can't go for zero to 100 in one 15      year, but she did indicate that, you know, she's 16      look -- she worked with Rikers in New York City 17      and she's worked with jails throughout the 18      country, and she looked at Allegheny County Jail 19      as a potential model for how to reform a jail in 20      an urban setting, and it can be a model for many 21      other jurisdictions.

22                     That doesn't mean we don't have 23      still a lot of things to work on, but it was 24      overwhelmingly positive about the jail
25      leadership, the medical staff, how people care,

1 and how engaged they are. So I thought that was 2 a fair assessment, very encouraging, realizing we 3 still have work to do.

4 So I appreciate the jail's hard
5 work. Thank you.

6 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Yes.
7 Thank you, all of you.

8 NEW BUSINESS

9 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
10 New Business.

11 MS. HALLAM: Judge, I'd like to 12 make a Motion to approve the Incarcerated 13 Individual Welfare Fund monthly disbursements of 14 $100 to each individual in the Allegheny County
15 Jail. This money is to be distributed as $50 16 twice per month, $50 at the beginning, $50 at the 17 middle. And I would ask for a second for that 18 Motion.

19 MAN-E: Second.

20 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Through 21 May of 2026?

22 MS. HALLAM: Through May of 2026.
23 I would do it for forever. I was trying. Sorry.
24 Thank you.

25 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.

1 We have a second from Man-E.

2 Man-E, how do you vote?

3 MS. INNAMORATO: Is there any 4 discussion?

5 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Oh,
6 sorry. Discussion.

7 MS. INNAMORATO: Thank you. Thank 8 you, President Judge. I just wanted to note for 9 the record that the fund will still be solvent
10 with continuing these payments until May of 2026.

11 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Anybody
12 else?

15 Man-E.

16 MAN-E: Yes.

17 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE:
18 Bethany.

20 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Rob.

21 MR. PERKINS: Yes.

22 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: I vote
23 yes.

25 MR. KRAUS: Yes.

1 MS. WEISE: Yes.

2 MS. GRIFFIN: Yes.

3 JUDGE BIGLEY: No.

4 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Motion
5 carries.

6 Thank you.

7 Next Motion we have, Mr. Perkins.

8 MR. PERKINS: All right. If I
9 screw it up, let me know. A Motion to direct the 10 Controller's Office to create and authorize the 11 Solicitor position to Craig Alexander.

12 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: To make 13 an offer.

14 MR. PERKINS: To make an offer,
15 yes.

16 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: To 17 Mr. Alexander.

18 MS. HALLAM: Second.

19 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Okay.
20 We'll go the other way. Judge Bigley?

21 JUDGE BIGLEY: Yes.

25 MS. INNAMORATO: Yes.

1 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Yes.

2 MR. PERKINS: Yes.

4 MAN-E: Yes.

5 JUDGE EVASHAVIK-DILUCENTE: Motion
6 carries.

7 Warden's Report.

8 WARDEN'S REPORT

9 WARDEN WINGARD: Good afternoon,
10 Board. So as you mentioned, we had the death on 11 March 4th (sic). Obviously, that's being 12 investigated, and we will continue to update the 13 Board as we know more. I just wanted to thank so 14 many staff that stepped up that day, from the 15 officers that responded, to the nurses, to all 16 the medical staff, and all our chaplaincy staff 17 that had spent that day and the previous -- or 18 the days since then, working with all the people 19 involved, all the incarcerated people that were 20 there and the staff. So as we receive more 21 information, we will continue to update the Board 22 on that.

23 I wanted to introduce Eric
24 Hintemeyer. He is the new Acting Deputy for 25 Operations, so he'll be starting to come to these

1 meetings more often, and you'll start having more
2 engagement with Eric. He's been at the facility
3 for a few years but has 25 years of corrections
4 experience -- over 25 years of corrections
5 experience. So thank him for stepping into this 6 role, and hopefully, you'll get to know him a lot 7 better as we move forward.

8 I want to talk about the storm
9 response. It feels like that was a long time 10 ago, but it was just last week. So we obviously 11 are a facility that doesn't close during any 12 events, and I can't tell you how proud I am of 13 the people who made it to work that day, the 14 officers that were there, the medical staff that 15 were there. Many, many people made it there, 16 Ubered there, got hotel rooms across the bridge 17 to get there, made a lot of provisions and 18 changes in their lives for several days to make 19 it to work.

20 We had staff being dropped off in 21 side-by-sides by family members. Like I said, we 22 had people staying in hotels. We -- it was a -- 23 it was a tough few days. We had many -- many of 24 us were in the facility. We had several managers 25 volunteer to come in and help run the facility

1       for those days, but we've talked in here several 2       times about emergency situations and how that 3       would go. We spent a lot of time during those 4       couple of days meeting, prepping the next 5       operational period, using as many outside 6       resources as we can, using our critical incident 7       manager, who we brought on board this year, 8       Captain Gillespie, and we did get through it.
9       And I'm very proud of the efforts.

10               And I know people just probably 11       think, well, that's what they're supposed to do, 12       but it was -- it was tough to get 40 to 50 people 13       to come in every shift and run that facility over 14       those couple of days. And I'm very happy to 15       report that, you know, we only had a brief period 16       of incarcerated people being locked in the 17       housing units. The rest of the time, they were 18       out like a normal day. So I wanted to report 19       that.

20               We have cadets graduating on 21       February 20th. Please come down. We'll send the 22       invitation. If you want to come to the 23       graduation, it's a nice event. We allow their 24       family members to come in. And over the last 25       couple of weeks, I want to report that we had

1       several -- I think 12 MDJs come down and tour the 2       facility to get to know what's going on down
3       there, and we had pre-meetings with them. Judge 4       Lovelace coordinated that. It went really well.
5       I think they gave a new -- just a different 6       experience from spending the day down there. I 7       know we learned a lot from talking to them, and 8       we're going to continue to -- continue to invite 9       groups like them in to continue to educate them 10      and us about the facility.

11                     That's all I have. Deputy Martin.

12       DEPUTY WARDEN'S REPORTS

13                     DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Good 14       evening, Board.

15                     The January data for MAT, we had 20 16       folks on Naltrexone, 44 on Vivitrol, 305 on 17       Suboxone, 45 on Sublocade, 17 treated with 18       Brixadi, 155 with Methadone.

19                     For Torrance, 7 were admitted and 20       transferred, 10 were committed, zero rescinded, 21       and 21 awaiting admission, with the longest 22       waiting since October.

23                     We had zero individuals identified
24       as Tier V, 16 identified as Tier IV.

25                     And for the mobile competency team,

1 they are currently serving 91 patients, 67 of 2 those are in ACJ, and 24 are in the community
3 that they are continuing to follow.

4 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Good
5 afternoon. For Foundation of Hope
6 activities-based programming partners with Still 7 Smiling Pittsburgh, and Pittsburgh Pirates and 8 Lectures to participate in their annual citywide 9 book read. Copies of the book Jailhouse Lawyer
10 by Calvin Duncan were donated by the White Whale
11 Book Store and distributed to interested
12 individuals on the Hope pods.

13 On January 29th, two book
14 discussions were held on the male and female 15 housing units. 30 individuals participated in 16 this event. Conversations centered around hope, 17 resources to plan for release, self-advocacy, and 18 the power of community.

19 Amy Kleissas from League of Women
20 Voters has partnered with Hope to provide Civics 21 courses to participants on 2-C, 2-F and 6-D.
22 Ms. Kleissas is also training activity staff to 23 be able to facilitate these in the future so they 24 can be expanded to additional housing units.

25 For Discharge and Release, in

1 January, we received a generous donation of 100
2 emergency blankets from the father of a Discharge 3 and Release employee. Emergency blankets are 4 being provided to those in need who are being 5 released during these extreme cold temperatures.
6 The Discharge and Release team is also providing 7 information to individuals being released on 8 warming shelters if they are in need.

9 Reentry Services, and update on the 10 tales program. Toby and Princess Leia both have 11 been adopted. Including those two, eight dogs
12 have been successfully adopted from the Tales
13 Program. On January 28th, two new dogs, Xavier 14 and Frank arrived to the jail. They are a bonded 15 pair and are adapting to their new home. Anyone 16 interested in adoption should visit the Animal 17 Friends website for application information.

18 I am pleased to announce that 19 Victoria Wozniak has been selected as the 20 Vocational Training Supervisor. Ms. Wozniak was 21 promoted to the position from her former position 22 as a caseworker. In her caseworker role, Ms.
23 Wozniak oversaw the working -- the worker housing 24 units and established a valuable rapport with the 25 population, which she will bring into her new

1       role.

2                   Educational Services. On January 3       14th, Inside Out programming resumed in the 4       Education Center with Penn State Greater 5       Allegheny Campus. The class is an opportunity 6       for college students and incarcerated students to 7       learn side-by-side. Penn State is teaching
8       introduction to Human Communication. This class
9       will study interpersonal and intrapersonal
10      communication as well as mindfulness and conflict
11      resolution. Duquesne University will resume 12      Inside Out Programming in February.

13                   Through our partnership with PIIN
14      and the First Unitarian Church, a generous 15      donation of books was provided to the jail's 16      library. We would like to extend our gratitude 17      to the members of the First Unitarian Church for 18      their donations. It was much appreciated.

19                   MS. GRIFFIN: It was from both the 20      online comments submitted and from folks -- from 21      Board Members who visited on inspections -- can 22      you tell us a little bit about your efforts to 23      deal with the cold inside the jail?

24                   WARDEN WINGARD: Of course. So in 25      the fall, extra blankets were issued, so

1 everybody has extra blankets. That's the first 2 thing we did. And before the cold weather even 3 came, we -- the Unit Managers know they can move 4 people out themselves that are cold. And I think 5 most importantly, have the Unit Managers on each 6 level, they've been given temperature gauges to 7 continue to check temperatures.

8 When they find issues, they report
9 those to us. We get with the facility staff, and 10 almost immediately, facility staff are going in.
11 And in most cases, they can control those temps
12 remotely. They can adjust temps from a laptop, 13 but sometimes they come in if that doesn't work,
14 and then we report back through the Unit Managers 15 if the temperatures have -- have leveled off.

16 We haven't, you know -- it's 17 been -- it's been much -- it's been very much 18 improved, I will say. I think that our facility 19 staff, about a month ago, found a few issues and 20 mechanical-type issues. They fixed them.
21 They've been doing a really good job staying on 22 top of it. We've been very happy with the 23 relationship we have with their current 24 leadership, and it's been going well.

25 When the Unit Managers hear those,

1       you know, concerns, they report them to us, and 2       we address them. I think last winter, it was 3       mostly one part of the facility or the other.
4       This winter, it's been one-off areas, so the Unit
5       Managers know they can move people if the people 6       want to move. Or if they don't, we continue to 7       address through extra blankets or through 8       temperature adjustments.

9                   MS. GRIFFIN: So you would move 10       individuals or whole pods or both?

11                  WARDEN WINGARD: So we will move 12       mostly cells because there are certain cells that 13       maybe get the weather that other cells don't get.

14                  MS. GRIFFIN: Okay.

15                  WARDEN WINGARD: And they will -- 16       they'll move. They're generally corner cells or 17       something like that.

18                  MS. GRIFFIN: And then I remember 19       doing an inspected -- unannounced inspection last 20       year during the wintertime and I know in Intake 21       with -- it seems like the doors that go out to 22       the -- I don't know what you call it, the big 23       garage-looking area -- that seems to be -- I 24       mean, are there more problems at Intake with that 25       cold?

1                   WARDEN WINGARD: The last tour that 2                   Ms. Hallam and Man-E did a few weeks ago, it was 3                   identified that the Intake was colder than usual, 4                   and that's exactly what we found. There were 5                   some garage doors -- that's where law enforcement 6                   brings folks in, and garage doors get left open 7                   sometimes. So we've talked to the management 8                   down in Intake about that, and we haven't had any 9                   more concerns since then. That was about two 10                  weeks ago, three weeks ago, I think.

11                  But I think the good news is we 12                  have -- I think we have such good communication 13                  with the leadership at Facilities now, they've -- 14                  you know, when we have an issue, it's a matter of 15                  a text message from us or a phone call, and it's 16                  addressed.

17                  MS. GRIFFIN: All right. Thank 18                  you.

19                  WARDEN WINGARD: Questions?
20                  Anybody else?

21                  MS. HALLAM: Yeah. Sure.

22                  MAN-E: Yeah. Quite a few 23                  questions. Mostly, I'm just trying to figure out 24                  which one to do first. A quick follow-up on what 25                  Barbara asked about the cold temperatures. I

1 know you said like the Unit Managers they have 2 temperature gauges and they check. If an 3 incarcerated person, you know, is experiencing 4 extreme cold, whatever, can they communicate 5 directly to the Unit Manager, or how does that 6 information get to them?

7 WARDEN WINGARD: It can. They can 8 communicate through tablets -- sorry. They can 9 communicate through tablets. They can tell the 10 officer, see the Unit Managers walking around the 11 pods. We -- that's who we generally hear from is 12 the Unit Managers, and it's at all times they let 13 us know when there's issues.

14 And, you know, staff. Just any 15 employee on the unit. The Unit Managers will 16 usually take the temp in the common areas, and 17 then they'll take temps in cells. So they're not 18 just taking temps in common areas. They're doing 19 other areas and taking those temps.

20 MAN-E: All right. I gotcha. So 21 during their shift, the Unit Manager is going on 22 the different -- to the different pods in the 23 different areas of the pods? Like, they cover an 24 entire floor, right?

25 WARDEN WINGARD: So Level 2, one

1 Unit Manager. Level 3 has two Unit Managers.
2 Level 4 has two Unit Managers. Level 5 has one,
3 and Level 6 has one.

4 MAN-E: Okay.

5 WARDEN WINGARD: And 8 has one.

6 MAN-E: But somebody can also reach 7 out to them on the tablet?

8 WARDEN WINGARD: Uh-huh.

9 MAN-E: Okay. I gotcha.

10 WARDEN WINGARD: Yes.

11 MAN-E: Now, you mentioned the 12 extra blankets. We got probably about two 13 reports, if I'm being honest. I don't want to 14 say a lot, but it was at least two people that 15 told us that the COs took away their extra 16 blankets. Now, is everybody required to have 17 extra blankets?

18 WARDEN WINGARD: We gave out an 19 extra blanket in probably October, if not -- 20 around October. Yeah, everyone had -- everyone 21 in the facility got an extra blanket.

22 MAN-E: And is that three blankets
23 or two?

24 WARDEN WINGARD: There are three 25 now, I believe. Three. Three. Everybody has 1 three.

2 MAN-E: Okay. So anybody --

3 WARDEN WINGARD: We did the same 4 last year, too.

5 MAN-E: I gotcha. In the event
6 somebody doesn't have three, can they communicate 7 that to the Unit Manager?

8 WARDEN WINGARD: Absolutely.

9 MAN-E: Okay. Gotcha. Appreciate
10 that.

11 My next question is about Ramadan.
12 It's coming up later this month on the 17th.
13 I've seen some steady improvement over the years.
14 I mean, last year we really didn't have a lot of 15 complaints. We went down there. I checked out 16 the food, talked to a lot of folks, who, you 17 know, appreciated how it was going. So I just 18 want to make sure that preparations are being 19 made. You know, you guys have a solid plan about 20 what's happening.

21 I also have a question about how 22 folks can sign up for Ramadan. I know that 23 during Intake, you can, you know, declare your 24 religion, so I would assume that if somebody says
25 they're Muslim, they're automatically signed up

1       for Ramadan. But how does that sign-up process 2       take place exactly? And what preparations are 3       being made?

4                   DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: So we are, as 5       we have done last year, having sign-ups for 6       Ramadan. So if they -- I mean, not everyone
7       that's Muslim wants to participate. So if you
8       want to participate, there's forms on the housing 9       units that they fill out, or they can write to 10      Chaplaincy to sign up, and then Chaplaincy has a 11      list, and they notify dietary of who gets those 12      specialized meals.

13                  MAN-E: Okay. I gotcha.

14                  DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: The bags, the 15      contents of the bags will be the same as they 16      were last year.

17                  MAN-E: Okay. So that's a paper 18      form. Like, can they do that on the tablet as 19      well?

20                  DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: They can do 21      it either way. They can do the paper form on the 22      housing unit, or they can use the tablet.

23                  MAN-E: Okay. I gotcha. And how 24      late into the month can somebody sign up and 25      request the meals?

1                   DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK:   So sign-ups
2                   are happening now, but if someone comes in 3                   mid-Ramadan, then they would be able to request 4                   that whenever they come in.

5                   MAN-E:   Okay.   I gotcha.   So if 6                   somebody was already in during the start of 7                   Ramadan and they didn't request it prior to, then 8                   they can't request it after?

9                   DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK:   Yeah.   It
10                  needs to be requested.   So we send out 11                  notification on the tablets that these sign-up 12                  forms are on every housing unit, so people were 13                  told three weeks ago that sign-ups are starting, 14                  to fill out the forms and have those sent to 15                  Chaplaincy.

16                  In addition to Ramadan, for the 17                  first time ever, our jail is doing special 18                  vegetarian meals for Lent, which we have never 19                  done before.   So -- and of course, the two always 20                  run simultaneously, so we are also doing sign-ups 21                  for vegetarian meals for Fridays during Lent.

22                  MAN-E:   Oh, that's dope.   I'm happy 23                  to hear that.

24                  All right.   My last thing is about 25                  Friday Jummah prayers.   You know, this is

1 something that's important all throughout the 2 year, but particularly during Ramadan as well, 3 and we got some reports that that was not 4 happening. Is that the case, or has that been 5 remedied?

6 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Yeah. So
7 Foundation of Hope has been struggling to get an 8 Imam hired on. They've reached out to several 9 different organizations, and they've been trying 10 to talk to different folks to see if we can get 11 somebody to come in. We still, of course, allow 12 prayer to happen, and it happens in groups on a 13 lot of the housing units where people will just 14 lead themselves. But ultimately, we do want to 15 have an Imam on board and there to provide that 16 service.

17 MAN-E: Okay. I gotcha. So that's 18 something that the Foundation of Hope is actively 19 working on?

20 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: That's 21 correct.

22 MAN-E: Okay. I gotcha.

23 All right. My last question is can 24 we -- in regards to some of the submitted online 25 comments, there were two that kind of stick out

1 to me from Shanelle Massey talking about a loved 2 one who has, you know, quite a few concerning 3 complaints, and also another woman, Wanda 4 Fitzgerald, who says that her daughter was 5 attacked. So I know we did this before. I'm not 6 sure when it was, probably a couple of months
7 ago. We don't have contact information on there, 8 but I believe the Controller's Office does. So 9 can you all just follow up, get the contact 10 information, and, you know, find out who it is?

11 CHIEF DEPUTY WARDEN ESTOCK: Yeah.

12 MAN-E: All right. That's it for 13 me. Thank you.

14 WARDEN WINGARD: Can I make one
15 comment? I failed to mention during the storm
16 that Trinity Food Service staff did an amazing 17 job. There was zero issues. They were all 18 there. Rocco and his team, I should have 19 mentioned, did an amazing job for three days 20 during that, along with our other staff.

21 As you know, they're contracted.
22 We had staff standing by, managers standing by 23 just in case, but we did not have to deploy
24 anybody else. I failed to mention that, and I 25 wanted to make sure they got that credit.

1 Thanks.

2 MR. PERKINS: I have a few
3 questions, Deputy Warden Martin, that are related 4 to medical issues. I had asked some questions 5 about issues on the 4 and 5 with respect to the 6 mental health pods, and I know I asked you this 7 question, you know, recently. But just for the 8 benefit of the public, how many people are on the 9 acute mental health pod currently?

10 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: I didn't 11 pull numbers today.

12 MR. PERKINS: Okay.

13 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: The max is 14 25.

15 MR. PERKINS: Max is 25.

16 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: We can't 17 have more than 25.

18 MR. PERKINS: Is it fair to say
19 that they're generally between like 18 and 20, 20 around that range?

21 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: That's 22 probably fair.

23 MR. PERKINS: And 5-C is the acute
24 mental health pod where people are very seriously 25 sick?

1 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Correct.

2 MR. PERKINS: Is there like an 3 analog or comparison to what that would be if 4 they were in a -- in the medical setting? And I 5 think of Western Psyche for example?

6 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: I would say
7 it would be like an inpatient locked unit.

8 MR. PERKINS: And how long -- I
9 know you don't have the numbers right in front of 10 you, but like on average, how long are people 11 residing on that pod, 5-C?

12 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: It could be 13 a couple of days to a couple of months. It 14 varies.

15 MR. PERKINS: I think the numbers I 16 remember is about 36 days on average. Does that 17 sound right?

18 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Yeah, 19 probably.

20 MR. PERKINS: Is that 21 historically -- do you know if it's always been 22 that people would spend that length of period of 23 time on 5-C?

24 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: I mean, 25 these things have changed, but our population as

1 a whole changed. You know, we're seeing people 2 more sick. We're seeing medically -- people are 3 more sick medically than they ever were before, 4 too. So I think as a whole, the population has 5 changed and more vulnerable and complex than they 6 were in the past.

7 MR. PERKINS: Okay. Sorry to be a
8 lawyer, but like as far as people on 5-C and 9 their length of stay, the average is 36 days. In 10 the past, was it a shorter stay than 36 days on 11 average, if you recall?

12 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Sometimes 13 yes, and some people were there for, you know, 14 just as long.

15 MR. PERKINS: Okay. Is the goal to 16 get people off of 5-C as soon as possible because 17 it's a pretty restrictive environment there?

18 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Yeah. I'd 19 say that's definitely the goal and always get 20 them more out of the acute units into a stepdown 21 unit.

22 MR. PERKINS: Okay. Are a lot of 23 people there awaiting Torrance State Hospital, or 24 do you have a sense of like why most people 25 are -- or what are most people's legal cases that

1 are housed on that pod?

2 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: I honestly
3 have no idea about their legal cases.

5 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: That's
6 something that I never dug into. As a healthcare
7 professional, it doesn't -- I don't want to say 8 it doesn't matter to us, but it doesn't matter to 9 us. I know it's a legal case now. We don't 10 really look at. Right now, we have 21 on the 11 wait list for Torrance, but that doesn't 12 necessarily mean they're all on the acute units.
13 They could be in the stepdown unit, and some of 14 them are in general population. So they can be 15 anywhere on the Torrance list.

16 MR. PERKINS: With respect to that 17 5-C population, how often are they receiving 18 treatment from a psychiatrist or mental health 19 staff? Like, estimates.

20 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Assuming we 21 have a psychiatrist there five days a week. We 22 have ADPs there on the weekends to help cover the 23 acute units if something arises. We have nurses 24 that work every single shift every day on those 25 units. We have mental health specialists

1 assigned to the units as well. So there's staff 2 there all the time.

3 MR. PERKINS: Okay. And when you
4 say is it like one nurse for 5-C or two nurses
5 for 5-C, or is there like one nurse for all five,
6 for example, just to -- I'm trying to understand 7 like, face-to-face, how much individual treatment 8 they get on 5-C.

9 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Sure. So on 10 dayshift, let's say, for example, there is a 11 mental health nurse for the male pod and there's 12 a mental health for the female pod, for the acute 13 pods.

14 MR. PERKINS: Okay. I had some 15 questions about the female population too. So 16 it's my understanding that the people in DTU
17 Discharge Treatment Unit, and the people in acute 18 mental health status, they're on the same -- in 19 the same area? Is that ideal to have those two 20 populations on the same floor?

21 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: No, no.
22 It's not ideal. That's just one of the areas 23 that we have to continue to work on and focus on 24 to try to get something more set up, like the 25 male pods. You know, the males have a full DTU

1 unit. However, the population with females is 2 much smaller, you know, than the males. So it's 3 just something on the checklist, I'll call it, 4 that we're continuing to work on.

5 MR. PERKINS: Do you have any sense
6 of like when there may be movement there?

7 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: I don't.

8 MR. PERKINS: How about 5-F?
9 That's the pod where they -- they're chained -- 10 like they're handcuffed to the tables.

11 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Correct.

12 MR. PERKINS: Is there any sense of 13 -- that people may get moved off that pod to 14 somewhere they could have more access to 15 recreation?

16 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: We are 17 looking at other housing locations for that.
18 Obviously, there's just facility work to be done.
19 There's -- there's logistics to be worked out 20 with it, but it's also in the works.

21 MR. PERKINS: All right. Is that a 22 more expedited timeline than separating the 23 females on the same mental health pod?

24 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Maybe I
25 could help a little bit. So I sent the Board an

1 update yesterday about some issues regarding 2 water. So we had to use the pod that -- we had 3 to reopen a pod temporarily. That is our 4 long-term goal to put the folks you mentioned, 5 Rob, up to that area. We had to -- we had to 6 reopen one of the pods on 7, which we've 7 identified to move the folks you're talking about 8 at some point up there.

9 But as you receive updates from us
10 occasionally about water issues, you know, that 11 we're dealing with with facilities a lot, we just 12 have to be strategic about not putting ourselves 13 in a situation where we can't pivot to a closed 14 pod if we have to, like we did yesterday.

15 So, you know, we're trying to be 16 flexible with the pods we have because of, you 17 know, issues on pods. When we have to move a 18 whole pod to another part of the facility, we 19 want to make sure we have those pods available to 20 us. We don't want to paint ourselves into a 21 corner, so to speak.

22 MR. PERKINS: Would the problems be 23 more easily solved if our population reduced
24 significantly?

25 WARDEN WINGARD: I think any

1 reduction -- I think any -- a lot of -- a lot of 2 things are positive with a reduction in 3 population in any correctional facility.

4 MR. PERKINS: All right. I think,
5 Connie, I had a question for you. With respect 6 to the tablet contract, I know you've been 7 working hard on it, but do you have a sense as to 8 when that might wrap up, and did you put 9 everything -- Bethany's 500 items in that 10 contract?

11 MS. HALLAM: I hope.

12 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: We're still 13 in -- we're still in negotiations with the tablet
14 and phone provider. So it's hard to speculate 15 when that will be finalized, but as soon as -- as 16 soon as I get any word on that, I'll make sure 17 that the Board is made aware.

18 MR. PERKINS: Last night, I saw the 19 article that Jesse wrote about Tre doing all the 20 awesome programming, so great job. Loved it.

21 I'm done.

22 MS. HALLAM: Okay. Okay. First
23 off, I want to shout out new Deputy Warden 24 Hintemeyer. Congratulations. That's dope. He 25 has been very, very helpful anytime I've ever

1 wanted to like review footage and video at the 2 jail. I mean, no one knows it like he does. So 3 just wanted to congratulate you for that, and 4 thank you for all your help.

5 Next, Deputy Warden Martin, I had 6 reached out a week or so ago about a person who 7 was just brought into the jail who needed a 8 breast pump, and she got it really quickly.

9 Why am I making that noise? Is 10 that just my ears, or is there like a feedback?

11 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: It's working.
12 It might be feedback.

13 MS. HALLAM: Is it my phone? Okay.
14 So thank you for getting that so quickly. I 15 really, really appreciate that, and she did too.

16 Okay. Questions. A couple of 17 follow-ups first based off of questions that 18 other people asked. Rob had asked a question 19 and, Deputy Warden Martin, you had answered that 20 the facility is medically more sick. And so I'm 21 just wondering like what kind of data supports 22 that? Is it that we have more people on 23 medicine? Is it that there's more people going 24 through the infirmary or on the medical pods?
25 And also, is that also -- was that also a claim

1       for mental health as well?

2                   DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: I'd say a 3       little bit of all of the above.

4                   MS. HALLAM: Okay. But what data
5       supports that claim is what I'm asking.

6                   DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Just from 7       our ER runs, our housing in the medical pods, our 8       housing in the mental health pods, the amount of 9       referrals that we're sending over to the courts 10      when we have a medically vulnerable patient.
11      We're just seeing more complex patients coming 12      in.

13                  MS. HALLAM: Is that like this 14      month? Is that in the past year? Like, when 15      would you say, like, the increases is since?

16                  DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: I'd say over 17      the past couple of years it's changed --

18                  MS. HALLAM: Over the past couple 19      of years.

20                  DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: -- pretty 21      significantly.

22                  MS. HALLAM: Okay. And do you 23      think that's because there are actually more 24      issues, or are we just being more responsive in 25      addressing people's issues?

1                   DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Oh, that's a 2 tough question. Maybe a little bit of both.

3                   MS. HALLAM: I just thought it was 4 an interesting claim I had never heard before.

5                   DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Yeah. No, I
6 mean, maybe a little bit of both. You know, our 7 healthcare team has grown significantly also over 8 the past couple of years. Maybe we're catching 9 things better than we have in the past. And 10 then, yeah, these people are definitely coming in 11 with more complex issues.

12                  MS. HALLAM: Okay. I appreciate
13 that. And then I saw that the NCCHC had recently 14 updated the mental health and mental health care
15 standard, and I'm just wondering who at the jail 16 is responsible for making sure that we are in 17 compliance with the updated standards? Is that 18 something that's in your purview?

19                  DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Yeah, yeah.
20 Myself and our whole entire management team get 21 together and go through all of that.

22                  MS. HALLAM: Okay. Okay. And I
23 know in previous meetings we have talked about 24 people getting their nighttime medications really 25 early. Can you please give me a positive update

1 and tell me that's not happening anymore?

2 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: It's not.
3 So we have rolled out the plan that no nighttime 4 meds get passed before 7:00 p.m.

5 MS. HALLAM: Wow.

6 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: So that is 7 in the works. It is happening. Obviously, we're 8 running into some speed bumps, you know, but that 9 is the plan. We're just working together with 10 the operations teams and the other programs that 11 are running in the evenings to make sure 12 everybody gets what they need to be done.

13 MS. HALLAM: Okay. What kind of 14 like issues are you running into? And would you 15 say that already nobody is getting nighttime meds 16 before 7:00 or --

17 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: I can say 18 the schedule has been put out that nobody gets 19 started before 7:00.

20 MS. HALLAM: Okay. Whether it's 21 happening or not, you're saying you're not sure 22 if it's fully implemented?

23 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: Nope. The 24 nurses are not starting before 7.

25 MS. HALLAM: Awesome. That is like

1 the best news I've heard in a long time.

2 DEPUTY WARDEN MARTIN: And, for 3 example, just -- you asked about like what kind 4 of issues are we running into. Yesterday, we had 5 two nurses show up at the pod at the same time, 6 both for different roles, but they both showed up
7 at the same time. So it's just working out 8 logistically to make sure everybody gets to where 9 they need to be all in one shift, you know?

10 MS. HALLAM: Awesome. Thank you
11 very, very much.

12 Okay. Other questions were 13 about -- I know Man-E asked about Ramadan meals, 14 and you said that -- Connie, you had said that 15 people who come through, like they come to the 16 jail during Ramadan. I know that meals in Intake 17 happen very differently than meals in the rest of 18 the jail, and so I'm wondering how quickly they 19 will be able to access, like, a Ramadan meal
20 schedule while in Intake?

21 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: I would have 22 to follow up with Chaplaincy just to see exactly 23 what that timeframe is, but as soon as we're 24 aware, we're going to make sure that they get it.
25 But I'll follow up with Chaplaincy just to see,

1       you know, at what stage do they then get that 2       communicated to them.

3               MS. HALLAM:   Okay.   Awesome.   Yeah,
4       I just don't want to see this awesome improvement
5       in it -- in the rest of the jail, and then people 6       in Intake are left out of that.   So thank you for 7       that.

8               Rob asked my question about getting 9       everything I wanted on the tablet contract, but I 10      guess I'm just wondering more timeline estimate?

11              DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK:   The same 12      answer I just provided.

13              MS. HALLAM:   Okay.   I was hoping to 14      get a better, more particular answer.

15              DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK:   I wish I had 16      one.

17              MS. HALLAM:   But there isn't one, 18      right?   You can't give me one because you don't 19      know.

20              DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK:   No, I don't 21      know.

22              MS. HALLAM:   Okay.   Cool.   Next 23      question is about -- I know, Warden, you brought 24      up about how cold it was when we were there a 25      couple of weeks ago in Intake.   Is there any --

1       like, have they gotten blankets? Other than the 2       shutting of the door, I know -- like, I think 3       that's a great idea to try to warm it up, but is 4       there any opportunity to get blankets in Intake?

5               WARDEN WINGARD: The door is 6       probably the main issue. They're opened and 7       closed all the time, and then sometimes they just 8       get left open. That's the main issue. That's 9       obviously connected to right where you were at, 10      and that cold air is rushing in.

11             MS. HALLAM: Uh-huh.

12             WARDEN WINGARD: The Captain and 13      her team down there continue -- wait and talk to 14      us. If it continues, if these cold temps coming 15      in this weekend, if it becomes a major issue, 16      then we will consider taking other provisions.

17             MS. HALLAM: Okay.

18             WARDEN WINGARD: But the doors
19      remaining closed helps a lot.

20             MS. HALLAM: Okay. Yeah. It was 21      just -- I mean, so many degrees different from 22      even the hallway of Intake and where people are 23      in Intake.

24             WARDEN WINGARD: Yeah. I think 25      that night or that next day you contacted me.

1 MS. HALLAM: Yeah.

2 WARDEN WINGARD: And we looked into 3 it.

4 MS. HALLAM: Okay. Awesome. Thank 5 you very much.

6 Next question. Worker pay. Can I
7 please, please, please, get an update -- sorry, 8 job vocational training with pay.

9 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: So as I
10 mentioned in my report, this month we hired 11 Victoria Wozniak as our Vocational Training 12 Supervisor, so she started a couple of weeks ago.

13 MS. HALLAM: I heard that.

14 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: She's being 15 onboarded, doing her training. And we have 16 finalized, like, the initial out-role of the 17 iPads that are being used to log people in these 18 locations. Barring any unforeseen issues, 19 because we are still in the testing phases of 20 this, we're hoping to go live with this in April.

21 MS. HALLAM: Okay. Yes. I heard
22 about the hire. I'm really excited about that.
23 So April -- like by April JOB meeting, or like by 24 May JOB meeting?

25 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: By April.

1 MS. HALLAM: Okay. That's an 2 awesome goal, and I'm really, really excited 3 about it. And again, it is all workers in the 4 jail. And now we have women who are workers in 5 the jail too.

6 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Yes.

7 MS. HALLAM: I'm very excited about 8 that. And so this will be everyone who is a 9 worker in the jail in any role?

10 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: Except for 11 pod workers. We talked last month about that.

12 MS. HALLAM: I know.

13 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: We have to 14 find a systemic way for hiring those folks that 15 makes sense, and that is a second phase of this 16 project.

17 MS. HALLAM: That will be a job of 18 this woman's -- this will be a part of this 19 woman's role to figure out how to do that?

20 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: She'll work
21 with Unit Management on that.

22 MS. HALLAM: Okay.

23 DEPUTY WARDEN CLARK: But, you
24 know, there's 36 pods. There's a lot of workers.
25 We -- it's a lot for one person to manage the 1 workers on the housing units, so she'll work with 2 Unit Management on that.

3 MS. HALLAM: Okay. If I can help
4 at all, please, I want to pay all workers that 5 are in there. So if I can help, like, try to 6 figure that out, I will help.

7 Next question is -- oh, in the 8 Monitor's Reports, she had written that there was 9 a staffing analysis that was started in the jail, 10 and I'm just wondering if somebody can speak to 11 that. Like, was that something that was required 12 by the Consent Order, I guess is my first 13 question about it, or was it something that, just 14 based off her recommendations, yinz decided to 15 do?

16 CHIEF DEPUTY WARDEN ESTOCK: That
17 was something we've been working on since I came 18 onboard as the Chief.

19 MS. HALLAM: Okay.

20 CHIEF DEPUTY WARDEN ESTOCK: There
21 hasn't been much of a staffing analysis done
22 there other than the Controller's Report of 2023, 23 so we're kind of going through each one of those 24 positions and making sure we're staffed 25 adequately and where they should be.

1 MS. HALLAM: Okay. That was my 2 next question, is when was the last one? So when 3 you say there hasn't really been one, it means 4 there just wasn't a staffing analysis done in the 5 past?

6 CHIEF DEPUTY WARDEN ESTOCK: I
7 don't know what the process was for --

8 MS. HALLAM: Okay.

9 CHIEF DEPUTY WARDEN ESTOCK: -- the 10 staffing analysis in the past. This is more in 11 line with the PA DOC.

12 MS. HALLAM: Okay.

13 CHIEF DEPUTY WARDEN ESTOCK: And 14 using what we do hour to hour.

15 MS. HALLAM: And how often do they 16 recommend that you do one?

17 CHIEF DEPUTY WARDEN ESTOCK: It's 18 every three years.

19 MS. HALLAM: Every three years. So
20 that's the plan is that we're going to start 21 doing one every three years?

22 CHIEF DEPUTY WARDEN ESTOCK: It is 23 my hope, yes.

24 MS. HALLAM: Awesome. That would 25 be great. So what is the reason for that, just

1       because we know staffing shortages are such an 2       issue? Like, why did you decide to do this now?

3               CHIEF DEPUTY WARDEN ESTOCK: Well, 4       I think we need an adequate number of staff that 5       we -- we know we need to run the jail based upon 6       leave, uses, based upon absences from the jail 7       for other reasons. We need to figure out the 8       relief factor and then the individual post. And 9       then when we add something new to it, we 10      obviously have to readjust our staffing and know 11      where our staffing is. That way, we can 12      effectively use the staff we have hired.

13             MS. HALLAM: Okay. Great. That 14      was my next question, like what's the effect that 15      you're hoping for? It's understanding if we need 16      to add more positions or different positions? Is 17      that the theory?

18             CHIEF DEPUTY WARDEN ESTOCK: It is.
19      When we looked at having an adequate number of 20      staff that run the facility, whether or not 21      they're -- we're filling the gaps appropriately.
22      So your relief factor would give you what each 23      post -- like, we may need 1.80 corrections 24      officers for each post at the jail.

25             MS. HALLAM: Okay.

1 CHIEF DEPUTY WARDEN ESTOCK: That
2 will give us an analysis and the baselines.
3 We're using evidence-based practices moving 4 forward to monitor that and making sure that we 5 adequately -- adequately staff the jail so we 6 don't have any lockdowns or services. That would 7 be a big part of that as well.

8 MS. HALLAM: I would love to see
9 that. Thank you very much.

10 And actually, last question. Is 11 there -- oh, no. Not last question. I take that 12 back. I have two more. Okay, sorry.

13 I know we had talked in the past
14 about strip searches and maybe excessive strip 15 searches, and that there didn't really seem to be 16 any data that was kept on that. And I was 17 wondering if that has changed since we talked 18 about that a few months ago -- if there is any 19 data kept on -- you know, if I wanted to see this 20 individual says they've been strip searched 30
21 times since they've been in the jail, if I wanted 22 to find out if they were, is that logged
23 somewhere that I would know?

24 I know in the past the answer was 25 that I would have to look in the logbook on the

1 pod, and that that's the only place that would 2 be, but that you guys were looking into keeping 3 better track of that. I was wondering if that 4 changed?

5 WARDEN WINGARD: Can we report back
6 next month?

7 MS. HALLAM: Of course. I have a
8 feeling you're going to have to report back next 9 month on my next question, too. So just -- I'll 10 write you an e-mail on both of them, but I want 11 to ask anyway.

12 If there is any data on the number 13 of people who are in the jail who were sent to 14 the jail from an Immigration Detention Center?

15 WARDEN WINGARD: Not that I'm aware 16 of.

17 MS. HALLAM: Would that be 18 information that would be easy for you to find 19 for me if I send you an e-mail and ask for it?

20 WARDEN WINGARD: Send it.

21 MS. HALLAM: Okay.

22 WARDEN WINGARD: I'll see if we can 23 find it, but I -- I'm aware of nobody.

24 MS. HALLAM: Okay. I know there 25 are at least a few, just like people that I have

1       talked to, people that I know of. And so I -- I 2       know it's more than zero is what I'd say.

3               WARDEN WINGARD: Yeah. Send the 4       request. We'll look.

5               MS. HALLAM: Okay. Thank you very 6       much.

7               WARDEN WINGARD: You're welcome.

8               MR. PERKINS: Any other questions?

9               (No response.)

10              MR. PERKINS: Okay. We'll move to 11       Public Comment next.

12       PUBLIC COMMENT

13              MR. PERKINS: Joe Shaughnessy.

14              MR. SHAUGHNESSY: Brian Englert has 15       been working closely with John K to organize 16       corrections officers around issues important to 17       them, but then often run counter to the needs of 18       incarcerated people. At an Oversight Board 19       Meeting on January 8, 2026, John K read a public 20       comment that graphically described a mental 21       health crisis --

22              MS. HALLAM: Uh-huh.

23              MR. SHAUGHNESSY: -- that an 24       incarcerated person experienced. This included 25       details about their medical treatment, pod level,

1 and behaviors. John did not disclose the 2 individual's name. However, this information can 3 only be obtained from internal sources.

4 Prior to the meeting, ACPEIU Union
5 President Brian Englert posted on Twitter an 6 incident report that matched the details of the 7 incident described in John K's comment. Englert 8 attempted to redact the report but used the 9 transparent highlighter, revealing the 10 individual's name and private medical 11 information, information that has now been read 12 into the public record.

13 This is a blatant HIPAA violation.
14 This individual's medical history has been leaked 15 by a member of jail staff, and the harm caused by 16 that cannot be undone. This is clear retaliation 17 against an incarcerated person for behaviors that 18 occurred during a mental health crisis. If 19 corrections officers are this comfortable showing 20 disdain for the people they supervise, then they 21 cannot be trusted with their care.

22 This is a form of intimidation.
23 Jail Oversight Board minutes are read by the 24 public and those inside the jail, including those 25 incarcerated. Reading out these personal details

1 and posting them on social media places -- excuse 2 me, posting them on social media places the 3 incarcerated person at extremely high risk for 4 harm. This is dehumanizing and humiliating.
5 Tactics like these are meant to cause mental 6 anguish and harm to incarcerated people and can 7 have a lasting impact on their mental health.

8 Brian Englert targeted an 9 individual with an existing mental health
10 diagnosis. This fact makes his behavior
11 especially egregious. This is a part of a 12 pattern of escalating behaviors. This is the 13 third time he has used public comments to target 14 an incarcerated individual.

15 We ask that Brian Englert not be 16 trusted around any incarcerated individuals.
17 Removing him from direct supervision of them is 18 not enough, as he still has the ability to 19 interact with family members of incarcerated 20 individuals and can negatively impact their 21 visitation. Termination is the only acceptable 22 outcome.

23 John cannot be trusted to enter the 24 Allegheny County Jail in any capacity. He is a 25 social worker and has violated the safety, trust,

1 and privacy of incarcerated individuals. A full 2 investigation must be done into Brian Englert and 3 anyone else involved in leaking the incarcerated 4 individual's personal information, a full review
5 of the ACJ's social media policy, ethics policy, 6 and protections around medical information.

7 Thank you.

8 MR. PERKINS: Patricia Murray is 9 next.

10 MS. MURRAY: Yes, I'm here
11 representing PIIN, Pennsylvania Interfaith Impact 12 Network. And I was happy to hear that the 13 individual who has been hired, that will take 14 over advocating for people to actually be paid 15 for their work that they provide in the jail, as 16 wonderful news, and that things are sort of set 17 out already, and, in fact, in timeframe, because 18 everything I have to say today has to do with 19 that. It's that everyone should be paid for 20 work. And this actually -- when I say it, I kind 21 of "squeeze" inside, but I think that's probably a 22 good thing because when people are not paid for 23 their work, that's the definition of slavery.
24 That just gives me the shivers to think that 25 that's the fact.

1                   Okay. We are grateful also that 2                   the participants in the upcoming program will be 3                   considered interns, and we're hoping this will be 4                   instituted, too, and it sounds like you have a 5                   timeframe set up for that, so that's wonderful 6                   news.

7                   Thank you.

8                   MR. PERKINS: John Kenstowicz.

9                   MR. KENSTOWICZ: The harassment and 10                  sexual exploitation of our female correctional 11                  officers. I would like to read to you two 12                  narratives from our 2025 ACJ Correctional 13                  Officers' Survey, and I quote, "Our female 14                  officers are not at all protected. From the 15                  moment they step in the door, as a new order 16                  mostly occurring, they are sexually harassed, 17                  asked to perform sexual acts or favors to work in 18                  a better position in the jail. Our women are 19                  found on social media and send nude pictures.
20                  Our women do not report these things due to the 21                  people also harassing our leaders, sergeants and 22                  captains." "If you are on their -- if you are 23                  one of their own, a kiss-ass, soft spoken, (audio 24                  interruption) a photo of sexual text messages and 25                  or e-mails."

1                   The job of our correctional 2 officers is one of the most stressful jobs in the 3 country. How does this make our female officers 4 feel if they are sent sexually explicit photos 5 and e-mails, harassed, knowing they are being 6 targeted? How does this make our female officers 7 feel to know their advancement at the jail for a 8 more privileged positions or to be an 9 administrator is being blocked by these 10 quid pro quo relationships?

11                   Classical reactive processes of 12 expecting our female officers to come forward and 13 make a complaint in darkness, using their 14 authority over our female officers with a no-tell 15 system.

16                   I do think that because the alleged 17 perpetrators are of these acts of intimidation
18 and abuse are possibly in this administration. I 19 do believe our Warden has to be directly 20 involved, asserting his authority over these 21 alleged perpetrators in protecting our female 22 officers to make a complaint without the threat
23 of reprisal. Romantic relationships can happen 24 in a workplace. Both parties are aware that 25 there's a striking difference between true

1       romance and a quid pro quo relationship.
2       Quid pro quo relationships are destructive to 3       marriages and families and intimate 4       relationships, and both parties know this. What 5       is the difference between these quid pro quo 6       relationships and prostitution?

7                       Regarding my role in all this, I am 8       a lic- -- a state licensed social worker mandated 9       to report child abuse. Abuse is abuse whether 10      it's a child or a female corrections officer. I 11      could report these allegations to the State 12      Office of Professional Conduct.

13                    MS. HALLAM: Times up, John.

14                    MR. KENSTOWICZ: Okay.

15                    MR. PERKINS: Airi Tilley.

16                    MS. TILLEY: Good evening. My name 17      is Airi Tilley, and I'm giving this comment on 18      behalf of Tanisha Long, who could not be here
19      today. She is on vacation. However, she felt it 20      was important to speak up about a troubling 21      incident of retaliation, harassment, and a gross 22      violation of the rights of an incarcerated 23      person.

24                    At the last meeting, John K. read a 25      statement crafted with the aid of a correctional

1 officer, Brian Englert, where he gave graphic and 2 unnecessary details about the medical incident of 3 an individual inside the ACJ. He included the 4 individual's pod number, details about their 5 behavior, and details about their mental health 6 treatment. There is no way he could have 7 received this information without receiving it 8 directly from a correctional officer.

9 We know that he received this 10 information firsthand from Brian Englert because 11 Englert posted the full incident report on 12 Twitter. You could see the individual's full 13 name, pod information, and medical details. To 14 be clear, this is retaliation and was an attempt 15 to humiliate the individual.

16 John K and Brian Englert are using 17 their access and influence to harm incarcerated
18 people. This is a clear HIPAA violation and a 19 gross violation of civil and human rights.

20 While I have filed a complaint with 21 the State Licensing Board against John K., he 22 must be banned from the jail and Brian Englert
23 must be terminated. I cannot imagine the pain 24 this incarcerated individual is feeling knowing 25 that their worst moments are being used as a

1 bargaining chip for correctional officers, but I 2 do know that this Board has a responsibility to 3 stop it.

4 We cannot allow our correctional 5 officers to weaponize medical records against our 6 incarcerated population, and we cannot allow 7 these individuals access to vulnerable people.
8 This is the third incident in which Brian Englert
9 has used this Board as a vehicle for retaliation 10 and has used the information gained in this 11 position to taunt and torment not only the 12 incarcerated individual but also their friends 13 and family members.

14 This sadistic behavior cannot 15 continue, and John K. can no longer be allowed to 16 use his position as a social worker to gain 17 access to anyone inside the facility. These 18 behaviors not only violate standards of decency
19 but the county's ethics policies. There is no 20 acceptable outcome that does not include the 21 complete removal from these spaces, and I urge 22 the jail and the Jail Oversight Board to move 23 quickly to make this happen.

24 Thank you.

25 MR. KENSTOWICZ: Can I respond?

1 MS. HALLAM: No. You already had 2 your time.

3 MR. PERKINS: No. No.

4 MS. HALLAM: You can respond --

5 MR. PERKINS: Diana Hull.

6 MS. HULL: Diana Hull, a member of 7 PIIN, and this will be short. People in custody
8 do not lose their right to dignity. They do not 9 lose their right, their right to medical privacy.
10 When a staff member publicly recounts a person's 11 mental health crisis, it not only breaches trust, 12 it reinforces stigma. It discourages people from 13 seeking help and undermines the ethical 14 responsibilities of those in charge with their 15 care. Releasing details related to a mental 16 health episode without consent violates medical 17 privacy.

18 While only a court can determine
19 whether this constitutes a formal HIPAA 20 violation, the spirit of HIPAA is clear. An 21 individual's health information must be 22 protected, handled with discretion, and never 23 disclosed for public consumption. This breach of 24 trust harms not only the individual involved, but 25 also the broader community's confidence in the 1 jail's ability to provide safe, humane, and 2 professional care. It reinforces stigma around 3 mental health.

4 We at PIIN call on the Jail
5 Oversight Board and the jail administration to 6 take this matter seriously, to investigate how 7 this happened, who is responsible, and to hold 8 that person accountable, and how to prevent this 9 from happening again.

10 Thank you.

11 MR. PERKINS: Maria Guido.

12 MS. GUIDO: Hi. Maria Guido,
13 Transformative Bonds. I just wanted to kind of 14 piggyback off of everyone else. When it comes to 15 HIPAA, I'm a licensed clinical social worker in 16 the state of Pennsylvania, and I would urge 17 anybody who is working to look at the National 18 Association of Social Workers Code of Ethics. We 19 have to follow that. HIPAA, dignity, and 20 respect, we have to follow all of that.

21 I also just wanted to comment on -- 22 I really liked hearing that the trauma trainings 23 were extended to eight hours, because that was a 24 really big issue with the previous 25 administration. And I'm also glad that it is

1 interactive. I've done these trainings for 2 probably like 16 years now, aging myself, and it 3 is like really important to do that engagement, 4 right, and to give these real kind of world 5 experiences, and to also show, like, our 6 correctional officers, if you can remain calm, 7 then you can help somebody else remain calm.
8 It's a science of safety.

9           The main thing that I wanted to 10 kind of talk about today is just kind of 11 something that historically has been happening 12 with the jail and the courts for years, kind of 13 issues, barriers of communication with providers, 14 specifically this time caseworkers from Children 15 Youth & Families. They're reporting issues with 16 getting clearances and difficulty reaching jail 17 caseworkers to set up virtual visits, and that 18 would be just for the caseworker to work with 19 clients in the jail. And it's continued to be a 20 barrier that exists, and it impedes efforts 21 towards reunification.

22           So under the Adoptee and Safe
23 Families Act, Child Welfare is generally required 24 within the 15- to 22-month mark to goal -- for 25 termination of parental rights. So when a kid is

1 removed from the home, and they're put in foster
2 care, the clock starts ticking, right? So it's 3 imperative to get these services in as soon as 4 possible so we can help. You know, caseworkers 5 are mandated to make reasonable efforts toward 6 reunification, which includes facilitating 7 contact and coordinating services. That direct 8 contact allows caseworkers to involve the parents 9 in case planning, assess parenting abilities, and 10 prepare for safe reintegration upon release.

11 So I'm proposing that the jail and 12 DHS maybe come up with a system together to see 13 how we can make this process more efficient. For 14 example, clearances. We can kind of assume that 15 anybody who works for Child Welfare has 16 clearances to work with people, so I don't know 17 if there is a way that we can kind of simplify 18 that. I know that it might seem like a simple 19 task, right, for a caseworker to just send over 20 their clearances every time they're asked for it, 21 but we have to remember they're Child Welfare 22 caseworkers and they're responsible for keeping 23 families safe. So it's really not like top of 24 the list, right? And if we can make it easier 25 for them to gain access to the jail, they can

1       engage their clients and help them work toward 2       the overall goal of reunification.

3                       That's it.

4                       MR. PERKINS:   Malikeya Khantrece.

5                       MS. KHANTRECE:   Malikeya Khantrece.

6       I'm here tonight to raise serious concerns about 7       what's happening in administrative custody right 8       now in Allegheny County Jail.   First, 9       administrative custody is not punishment, and 10      it's not disciplinary segregation, but recently, 11      there's been a decline in any awareness of that.
12      There's multiple incarcerated individuals held in 13      AC who have been -- had their radios revoked.
14      They're had their -- have their rec time revoked, 15      and when they ask why, they are just told policy 16      is changed, but they don't have access to those 17      policies, and I don't find them anywhere in -- 18      for the public.

19                      There's a particularly urgent case.
20      One individual has been in administrative custody 21      for approximately three months with no actual 22      investigation pending, and no actual reasoning
23      why, and no explanation other than you're here 24      for life, which is a quote.   During this -- the 25      whole time that he's been in there, he has no

1 functioning lighting. He's put in multiple 2 requests to have lighting and remains in the 3 dark. In addition to that, which is a serious 4 safety and health issue anyway, he has documented 5 epileptic seizures.

6           The other thing that's happening 7 while he's in administrative custody is just 8 everyone else in AC to leave the yard and to 9 come -- to go out to the yard, you have -- you're 10 strip-searched. Just this week, though, in 11 addition to those, he's had three investigative 12 strip and cell searches with no explanation why 13 that come to nothing.

14           He also had gotten called out to a 15 fake -- fake hearing, a court hearing that never 16 occurred, but while he was out, they were 17 searching his cell for three hours. Now, I'm not 18 an architect, but three hours is a long time for 19 that space. At times, Sarver was in there alone, 20 but -- Andresi was in there alone.

21           In addition, over the last two 22 years that he's been incarcerated, he has been -- 23 had investigative -- 189 investigative strip 24 searches. Now, I'm not a mathematician, but 25 there's 104 months in two years. That two a

1 week. That's two additional investigative 2 searches a week, and those come to no avail.

3 It should be -- it should go
4 without saying that the documentation the people
5 are asking for for these strip searches begin 6 immediately. It needs to begin immediately, and 7 it needs to stop, because it's not bringing any 8 outcome other than losing dignity.

9 That's all.

10 MS. HALLAM: Thank you.

11 MR. PERKINS: I think that's it for 12 Public Comment.

13 ADJOURNMENT

14 MR. PERKINS: Motion to Adjourn?

15 MS. HALLAM: So moved.

16 MR. PERKINS: Second?

17 MAN-E: Second.

18 MR. PERKINS: All in favor?

19 (Chorus of ayes.)

20 MR. PERKINS: Meeting adjourned.
